INDICTMENT

THE UNITED STATES GRAND JURY CHARGES:

Introduction to all Counts

(1) Section 274A of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA), as amended by the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986, requires employers to hire only United States citizens and aliens who are authorized to work in the United States. Employers must verify the employment eligibility of any persons hired after November 6, 1986, using the Employment Eligibility Verification Form (I-9). The employer is required to examine, at the time of hire, the documentation provided by the individual that establishes his identity and employment eligibility, and to ensure that the documents presented appear to be genuine and relate to the individual. The employer must retain the Form I-9 for three (3) years after the date of the hire or one (1) year after the date the individual's employment is terminated, whichever is later. In general, it is unlawful for a person or other entity to hire, or recruit or refer for a fee, for employment in the United States an alien knowing the alien is an unauthorized alien with respect to such employment as indicated in the above described employment eligibility verification process. Further, Section 274A of the INA stipulates it is unlawful for a person or entity, after hiring an alien for employment, to continue to employ the alien in the United States knowing the alien is (or has become) an unauthorized alien with respect to such employment.

(2) The United States Department of Treasury, Internal Revenue Service (IRS) is an agency of the United States responsible for the administration and collection of employment related and income taxes for both businesses and individuals operating within the United States. The term "payroll taxes" includes federal withholding income taxes, Social Security taxes, Medicare taxes, and federal unemployment taxes.

(3) Throughout the United States, each state has its own State Workforce Agency (SWA) responsible for the administration and collection of employment related and / or income taxes for both businesses and / or individuals operating within that state.

The term "payroll taxes" includes state income taxes, unemployment taxes, and / or other applicable taxes.

Count One

Violation: 18 U.S.C. § 1962(d)
(RICO Conspiracy)

General Allegations

(4) At all times material to this indictment, defendants Jianjun Ma, a/k/a "Paul," Liang Gao, Shoufang Jiang, Jiang Ping Zhang, Guo Le Chen, and others known and unknown to the Grand Jury, were members and associates of an enterprise referred to as the Tai Shan Enterprise, an organization engaged in, among other things, recruiting and placing unauthorized aliens to work in restaurants throughout the state of Texas, and elsewhere, for a fee. This organization also transported the unauthorized aliens to the restaurants where they would work and be housed by the restaurant owners / operators during their employ. At times, the organization also housed the unauthorized aliens pending their transport to the restaurants to work.

The Racketeering Enterprise

(5) Jianjun Ma, a/k/a "Paul," Liang Gao, Shoufang Jiang, Jiang Ping Zhang, Guo Le Chen, and others both known and unknown to the Grand Jury, were members and associates of the Tai Shan Enterprise. The Tai Shan Enterprise, including its leadership, members, and associates constituted an enterprise, as that term is defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1961(4), that is, a group of individuals associated in fact. The Tai Shan Enterprise constituted an ongoing organization whose members functioned as a continuing unit for the common purpose of achieving the objectives of the Tai Shan Enterprise, which was engaged in, and the activities of which, affected interstate commerce.

Purposes of the Tai Shan Enterprise

- (6) The Tai Shan Enterprise's purposes were to:
- a. Accept, solicit, and recruit unauthorized alien workers, and persons believed by the defendants to be unauthorized alien workers, for employment in the United States.
  - b. Arrange for, and cause the unlawful employment of, unauthorized alien workers primarily in Chinese and Chinese owned / operated restaurants in the United States for a fee.
  - c. Transport, and cause the transportation of, unauthorized alien workers within the United States for whom the defendants arranged employment in the United States.
  - d. Harbor, and cause to be harbored, for a fee, unauthorized alien workers in vehicles and domiciles within the United States.
  - e. Receive commercial advantage or private financial gain by employing, transporting, and harboring unauthorized alien workers, and by arranging for the employment, transportation and harboring of unauthorized alien workers in the United States.

Means and Methods of the Tai Shan Enterprise

(7) Jianjun Ma, a/k/a “Paul,” operated the Tai Shan Employment Agency, an incorporated business, registered with the Texas Secretary of State (Filing #800383395) since August 30, 2004, in Harris County, Texas. Tai Shan Employment Agency is an employment referral business located at 9115 Bellaire Blvd., #119, Houston, Texas, in the Southern District of Texas. It was through this job referral agency that Jianjun Ma, a/k/a “Paul,” and others conducted the affairs of the Tai Shan Enterprise, namely, the unlawful recruitment, inducement, harboring, and transportation of unauthorized aliens to work in the United States.

(8) Jianjun Ma, a/k/a “Paul,” personally and with others, recruited unauthorized aliens for work in the restaurant industry and then transported them to restaurants to work, all the while concealing, harboring, and encouraging and inducing them to reside in the United States. Clients of the Tai Shan Enterprise were Chinese restaurants or other Chinese owned restaurants located in several states, to include Texas, Louisiana, Oklahoma, Arkansas, and Colorado.

(9) The workforce supplied by the Tai Shan Enterprise was predominantly comprised of Hispanic unauthorized aliens from Mexico and Central America illegally in the United States. A workforce of this demographic was specifically sought and employed by the Tai Shan Enterprise for commercial advantage and private financial gain.

(10) More specifically, the Tai Shan Enterprise placed unauthorized alien kitchen workers, food preparers, and dishwashers in budget-priced restaurants specializing in Chinese, Asian, and Asian-related cuisine throughout the United States for a fee. The Tai Shan Enterprise solicited “client” restaurants through commercial advertising in Chinese language newspapers that circulate nationwide in print and digital form.

(11) The Tai Shan Enterprise used Chinese-language newspaper(s), including World Journal of Texas, and this newspaper’s companion Internet website to solicit the Chinese restaurants and offer Hispanic unauthorized alien workers, commonly referred to in this context as “amigos,” to them. Following this solicitation, and upon agreement with the restaurant owners, the Tai Shan Enterprise charged fees for the transportation, housing, and delivery of unauthorized alien workers with the fees depending on the length of time an unauthorized alien worker was housed by the Tai Shan Enterprise and how far the unauthorized alien was transported.

(12) The Tai Shan Enterprise created and distributed business cards, printed in both Chinese and Spanish, to Chinese restaurant owners / operators and Spanish-speaking unauthorized aliens to facilitate this effort. Additionally, the Tai Shan Enterprise also accepted unauthorized alien workers on a “walk-in” basis and utilized Spanish-speaking recruiters to assist with communications in person and / or over the phone. As part of this scheme, these unauthorized alien workers remained and resided in the United States in violation of the law.

(13) Owners or operators of “client” restaurants in the United States would and did knowingly and / or with reckless disregard routinely hire unauthorized alien workers in order to staff their restaurant kitchen operations, thereby cutting costs and maximizing profits. In general, these owners / operators of "client" restaurants:

- a. Required the unauthorized aliens to work long hours with few or no days off;
- b. Paid the unauthorized aliens in cash, at a rate below minimum wage;
- c. Did not withhold state and / or federal taxes from the wages paid to unauthorized aliens;
- d. Did not require the unauthorized aliens to comply with local health standards for restaurant workers in the jurisdictions where they operated;
- e. Did not require the unauthorized aliens to present documents establishing identity and /or employment eligibility as required by law; and,

(14) As an incentive, and in order to remain competitive, these "client" restaurant owners / operators often provided housing, meals, and transportation to their unauthorized alien worker(s).

(15) As stated above, the Tai Shan Enterprise advertised and distributed business cards to unauthorized aliens, several of whom are now material witnesses, and others, and utilized the Internet in order to facilitate this effort. Specifically, the Tai Shan Enterprise recruited unauthorized alien workers in the Houston, Texas area and charged them approximately $300 to $480 per person for what they represented as fees for housing while awaiting employment, fees for job placement, and fees for transportation to an employment location. The fee charged to the unauthorized alien was paid by the "client" restaurant owner and / or manager upon receiving an unauthorized alien from the Tai Shan Enterprise. The exact amount of these fees would then be deducted from the unauthorized alien's first month's salary. The typical monthly salary for the unauthorized aliens employed by the "client" restaurants was between $1,000 and $2,000 per month, depending upon the type of duty the unauthorized alien was assigned to do. The typical monthly salary was based on a schedule of twelve (12) hours per day, six (6) days per week.

(16) "Client" restaurants of the Tai Shan Enterprise further profited by not allowing unauthorized alien workers to receive "tips," gratuities, overtime compensation, competitive salaries, health insurance, vacation time, sick leave, compensatory time, or other benefits. The "client" restaurants profited further by avoiding payment of employment taxes via cash payment of unauthorized workers' salaries. Unauthorized alien workers did not receive health examinations, food safety training, or job training at any time while employed, resulting in further savings for "client" restaurants.

(17) "Client" restaurants of the Tai Shan Enterprise profited by harboring unauthorized alien workers in one (1) of several formats beneficial to the "client" restaurant(s). Specifically:

- a. unauthorized alien workers were harbored in the "client" restaurant operator's residence; or
- b. unauthorized aliens were harbored in off-site residential locations with multiple other restaurant employees.

(18) Often, the unauthorized alien workers were subject to unfavorable living conditions due to crowding, lack of privacy, minimal or no furniture, and other adverse conditions to include sleeping on floors, and / or air mattresses. The unauthorized aliens, having usually been transported many miles from the Houston, Texas area, had no friends or family in the vicinity of their place of employment. This aspect of the scheme, coupled with the poor English language skills typical to the work force recruited by the Tai Shan Enterprise, made it difficult for the unauthorized alien employees to function outside their place of employment, for fear of law enforcement and lack of an ability to assimilate into the community. These factors caused the unauthorized aliens to be more likely to remain at the Chinese restaurant even though the working and living conditions were less than desirable.

(19) The Tai Shan Enterprise failed to comply with Section 274A of the INA, because it is also unlawful for a person or other entity to hire, or to recruit, or refer for a fee, for employment in the United States, an individual without complying with the requirements of the employment verification system.

(20) The Tai Shan Enterprise recruited, and referred for a fee, employed, transported, harbored, and encouraged and induced unauthorized aliens to work at "client" restaurants. The Defendants and their associates knew that the "client" restaurants, in turn:

- a. Employed the unauthorized alien in a manner contrary to immigration law;
- b. Did not provide for worker's compensation coverage for the unauthorized alien employees;

c. Did not provide overtime benefits for the unauthorized alien employees in accordance with employment regulations, and;

d. Did not withhold payroll taxes for unauthorized alien employees.

Roles of the Defendants

(21) The members of the Tai Shan Enterprise would and did occupy the following roles, among others, in the Enterprise:

a. Defendant Jianjun Ma, a/k/a "Paul," is the owner / manager for the Tai Shan Employment Agency. As part of the Tai Shan Enterprise, Jianjun Ma, a/k/a "Paul," recruited, referred for employment for a fee, transported, harbored, and encouraged and induced unauthorized aliens to reside in the United States.

b. Defendant Liang Gao has been identified as a principal driver / transporter for the Tai Shan Enterprise. As part of the Tai Shan Enterprise, Liang Gao harbored and transported unauthorized aliens and accepted fees for their delivery to restaurant locations.

c. Defendant Shoufang Jiang has been identified as a principal driver / transporter for the Tai Shan Enterprise. As part of the Tai Shan Enterprise, Shoufang Jiang harbored and transported unauthorized aliens and accepted fees for their delivery to restaurant locations.

d. Defendant Jiang Ping Zhang has been identified as a principal driver /transporter for the Tai Shan Enterprise. As part of the Tai Shan Enterprise, Jiang Ping Zhang harbored and transported unauthorized aliens and accepted fees for their delivery to restaurant locations.

e. Defendant Guo Le Chen has been identified as a principal driver / transporter for the Tai Shan Enterprise. As part of the Tai Shan Enterprise, Guo Le Chen harbored and transported unauthorized aliens and accepted fees for their delivery to restaurant locations.
