

Taking drugs can lead to HIV/AIDS.

Think.

before you start.
before you shoot.
before you share.

- Sharing contaminated needles and syringes is one of the quickest and easiest ways of transmitting HIV.
- Among the estimated 16 million people injecting drugs worldwide, one in five are likely to be HIV positive.
- Young people aged 15 to 24 account for nearly half of all new HIV infections worldwide.

UNITED NATIONS
Office on Drugs and Crime

www.unodc.org/thinkaids

V08-58050