Workshop 4
Public contribution to crime prevention and raising awareness of criminal justice – experiences and lessons learned
16-17 April 2015, Exhibition Hall 1B

Thursday 16 April 2015, morning session

10:00 – 10:30
Opening:
Chairperson
Miri Sharon, Justice Section (UNODC) (5 min.)
Adam Tomison, Moderator, Director and Chief Executive, Australian Institute of Criminology (AIC) (10 min.)

10:30 – 11:45
Panel 1: The role of the media, social networks and new communication technologies
Panellists:
1. Murray Lee, University of Sydney, Australia
   - Social media and crime: exploring the ‘social mediatisation’ of justice
2. Robert Muggah, Igarapé Institute, Brazil
   - Citizen Security Dialogues – a partnership of government, private sector and academic experts to discuss new innovative social technologies that work
3. Adrián Franco, General Director of Government, Public Security and Justice Statistics, INEGI, Mexico
   - Bringing others on board by building a crime information system for local impact: the case of INEGI’s subsystem in Mexico

Discussion

11:45 – 13:00
Panel 2: Public participation at the local level: initiatives to promote crime prevention and raise awareness of criminal justice
Part 1: Rethinking the problem
Panellists:
1. Matthew Torigian, Deputy Minister, Community Safety, Ministry of Community Safety and Correctional Services, Province of Ontario, Canada
   - Community mobilisation - a new approach to community and police engagement
2. Nick Crofts, Director, Centre for Law Enforcement and Public Health, Melbourne University, Australia
   - Public health as crime prevention - police and community partnerships in the response to HIV
3. Fatima Itawi, Geneva Centre for the Democratic Control of the Armed Forces (DCAF), Switzerland/Palestine
   - Partnerships for human security in fragile contexts – the example of community safety planning in Palestine
Thursday 16 April 2015, afternoon session

15:00 – 16:30
Panel 3: Public participation at the local level: initiatives to promote crime prevention and raise awareness of criminal justice
Part 2: Access to justice – strategies and approaches
Panellists: (15 min.)
1. Myriam Khaldi, Access to Justice Expert, Avocats Sans Frontières (ASF), Belgium
   - Access to criminal justice and prevention of crimes: the critical role of grassroots communities
2. Martina Gredler, Soroptimists International, Austria
   - Empowering women in crime prevention: a civil society approach
3. Nicholas McGeorge, Friends World Committee for Consultation (Quakers), United Kingdom
   - Three ways in which volunteers use restorative processes and mediation to reduce crime
4. Shoji Imafuku, Director of the Supervision Division, Rehabilitation Bureau, Ministry of Justice, Japan
   - The significant contribution of volunteer probation officers and other citizens towards the rehabilitation of offenders and a crime-free society in Japan

Discussion

16:30 – 18:00
Panel 4: Public participation at the local level: initiatives to promote crime prevention and raise awareness of criminal justice
Part 3: Regional initiatives
Panellists: (20 min.)
1. Douglas Durán, ILANUD / Permanent Latin American Committee for Crime Prevention, Brazil/Costa Rica
   - Promoting public participation in the prevention of crime – the Latin American perspective
3. Sean Tait, African Policing Civilian Oversight Forum
4. Elinor Chemonges, Open Society Justice Initiative
   - The reflection of community perspectives in policy and practice – an African experience

Statement on youth perspectives on crime and violence (10 min.)
Discussion: (30 min.)
Summary and closing remarks

Representative of Qatar World Youth Forum

Adam Tomison (AIC), Moderator
Chairperson
Friday 17 April 2015, morning session

10:00 – 10:30
Opening
Recap of Day 1, and introduction to Panel 5

Chairperson
Adam Tomison (AIC), Moderator

10:30 – 11:45

Panel 5: The role of private sector business in crime prevention and criminal justice
Panellists: (15 min.)
1. Martin Kreutner, International Anti-Corruption Academy (IACA), Austria
- The role of business and the private sector in the prevention of corruption
2. Alice Scartezini, Caixa Seguradora Youth Expression Project, Brazil
- Social responsibility and crime prevention: lessons learned from the Expression Youth Programme in Brazil
3. Margaret Shaw, Consultant, International Centre for the Prevention of Crime, Canada
- Public private partnerships and crime prevention

Discussion

11:45 – 13:00

Review and discussion of workshop outcomes, conclusions and recommendations

Adam Tomison (AIC)
Peter Homel (AIC)

Summary and closing remarks
Chairperson