UNODC promotes evidence-based statistics on corruption. Data from sample surveys on households, business and civil servants increases knowledge on corruption. This information is key to support implementation of anti-corruption measures.

www.unodc.org