

A large, diverse group of young people, likely students, are seated in a lecture hall, looking attentively towards the front. The image is slightly blurred, emphasizing the collective nature of the audience.

EDUCATION FOR JUSTICE MODEL UNITED NATIONS RESOURCE GUIDE

Adopted at the conclusion of the 13th United Nations Congress on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice, the Doha Declaration highlights the importance of education as a tool to preventing crime and corruption. It emphasizes that education for children and youth is fundamental in promoting a culture that supports the rule of law, crime prevention and criminal justice

In support of this, the Education for Justice (E4J) initiative - under the Global Programme for the Implementation of the Doha Declaration - has been developed to create and disseminate education materials in UNODC-mandated areas of crime prevention and criminal justice across the primary, secondary and tertiary education levels. Online tools and academic resources are available free of charge, while workshops, conferences and symposia are organized for teachers and academics to learn and exchange ideas and research.

EDUCATION FOR JUSTICE MODEL UNITED NATIONS RESOURCE GUIDE

MUNs offer a popular way to learn about the United Nations and to give tomorrow's leaders an insight into negotiating at the international level. E4J developed a guide to support MUNers who wish to integrate crime prevention and criminal justice issues into their simulations. Participating students can use the guide to learn about the global rule of law challenges being discussed at the core of the United Nations.
