

Supporting the Indonesian National Police on good policing

Jakarta (Indonesia), 28 to 29 April 2011 - A guide book entitled 'Good Policing: Instruments, Models and Practices' was launched on 28 April 2011. The book is aimed at improving the culture of good policing based on international, regional and national principles and practices within the regions of Asia and Europe. Authors, Prof. Dr. Monica den Boer of the Police Academy of the Netherlands and Prof. Dr. Changwon Pyo of the Korean National Police University identify gaps and ethical dilemmas in a number of areas of policing

The book launch was followed by a discussion entitled "Who will Guard the Guards Themselves; Human Rights and Accountability in Policing - Asian and European Experiences". Key speakers included Inspector General Police Paulus Purwoko, Director of the Police Leadership and Command School, H.E. Mr. Julian Wilson, Head of the European Union Delegation to Indonesia and Brunei Darussalam, Mr. Haris Azhar, Coordinator for Commission for the Disappeared and Victims of Violence, Mr. Rohit Choudhary, Director of the Punjab Police Academy, India and Atty Guinto, Head of the Human Rights Office of Philippine National Police. On 29 April 2011, an experts meeting took place at the University of Police Science in order to incorporate Indonesian perspective to the upcoming Bahasa translation of the guidebook.

The series of activities was jointly organised by the Asia-Europe Foundation and the Hanns Seidel Foundation in collaboration with the Indonesian National Police, Commission for the Disappeared and Victims of Violence, UNODC and supported by the European Union.

The National Narcotics Board to work more closely with UNODC

Jakarta (Indonesia), 29 April 2011 - Addressing the request of the National Narcotics Board, UNODC held the first induction programme for 14 new staff in the Treatment and Rehabilitation Division of the National Narcotics Board. Led by Mr. Gray Sattler, UNODC HIV/AIDS Regional Adviser, the UNODC team gave information on the global and Indonesian HIV epidemic, global drug use, principles of HIV prevention and of drug dependence, UNODC policies related to drugs and HIV and international good practice in responding to drug use.

At the end of the programme, participants identified activities for UNODC to carry out to support the National Narcotic Boards work at the national and provincial levels. The second session within this programme will be held on 31 May 2011 and the third is to be organised on 3 June 2011.

UNODC endorses the national fight against corruption

Semarang (Indonesia), 11 to 21 April 2011 - UNODC is working closely with the Indonesian National Police in conducting six workshops designed with the aim of enabling greater understanding, improved communication and better cooperation between the various agencies involved in the national fight against corruption.

The initial two workshops of a six-part Integrated Management of Corruption series were delivered back to back at the Jakarta Centre for Law Enforcement Cooperation (JCLEC). The workshop was opened by Commissionaire General Police Nanan Soekarna, Deputy Chief of the Indonesian National Police and Mr. Busyro Muqoddas, Head of the Corruption Eradication Commission.

The success of the workshops was evident in the level of cooperation and team spirit displayed within the syndicates. The signing of a 'Pact of Integrity' by the participants of the workshops and the establishment of a joint commitment to address the barriers that prevent the successful investigation of corruption cases were amongst the notable outcomes.

The workshops were delivered as part of the European Union-funded project, which is being implemented by UNODC, designed to assist the Indonesian National Police in raising their capacity and capability in dealing with corruption and transnational crime.

Integrated drug treatment and HIV prevention project to address national needs

Jakarta (Indonesia) 12 April 2011 - At the fifth project steering committee meeting of the Swedish Government-funded project 'Integrated drug treatment and HIV prevention, treatment and care services', members of the steering committee, chaired by Dr. Nafsiah Mboi, Secretary to the National AIDS Commission, accepted the UNODC report on project progress and training plan.

The committee agreed on the five-day training programme 'Integrated Drug Dependence Treatment and HIV Prevention Training' for staff of Drug Dependence Treatment and HIV Prevention, Treatment, and Care Services Provider'. This training will commence from May to July 2011 and will be held in Jakarta, West Java, East Java, Central Java, and Bali.

Present at this meeting were representatives of the National AIDS Commission, the National Narcotics Board, Directorate General of Medical Services, Directorate General of Disease Control & Environment of the Ministry of Health, Atma Jaya University, Indonesian national network of people who use drugs, STIGMA Foundation, WHO and UNODC.

Indonesian experts gather to discuss asset recovery

Jakarta (Indonesia), 28 April 2011 - UNODC Indonesia held a round table discussion on stolen asset recovery in Jakarta. This discussion was aimed to create a common understanding on stolen asset recovery issues among law enforcement officials in Indonesia. Deliberations also were directed at the readiness of Indonesian legal system to address this issue.

The roundtable discussion came up with alternate approaches to address the issue of asset recovery in Indonesia and recommendations were made by participants at the end of the session. It was noted that the establishment of a task force within the Indonesian National Police and Attorney General's Office (which mainly deal with asset-tracing and asset recovery matters) is needed. With regard to this, recommendations to improve the capacity of the current investigator and proposed task force were made. The group of experts also called to establish an informal discussion on asset recovery with stakeholders.

Training for Forest Police Rapid Reaction Unit and forest rangers to be held in Papua

Jayapura (Indonesia) 24 to 30 April 2011 – A courtesy call was made by UNODC to introduce the Norwegian Government- funded project 'Countering illegal logging and the linkage between forest crime and corruption' to the Natural Resources Conservation Center and the Department of Forestry in the city and district levels of Jayapura. The training agenda for the Forest Police Rapid Reaction Unit and forest rangers was also finalised during this meeting.

Over all, the government counterparts in Papua fully welcomed the project, which specifically targeted the Cyclops conservation areas around the provincial capital. During this mission, UNODC team also appointed seven local NGOs for cooperation and had coordination meetings with representatives of the Indonesian National Police, UN Agencies, Centre of Ecology and Development Study, University of Cenderawasih, Conservation International Indonesia and WWF.

UNODC to continue cooperation with the Supreme Court

Jakarta (Indonesia) 26 April 2011 - The Judicial Reform Team lead by The Honourable Prof. Dr. Paulus Lotulung, Deputy Chief Justice and Coordinator of the Judicial Reform Team delivered the evaluation on UNODC 'Strengthening judiciary integrity and capacity in Indonesia phase II' project.

In general, the Supreme Court gave positive responses and feedback. With the Phase III project coming up, the Supreme Court planning bureau is keen to actively participate in the project in order for the project to be sustainable and ensure ownership. The Supreme Court also requested UNODC to provide technical assistance particularly on the judicial integrity training for candidate of judges and access to justice. The meeting was followed by signing of minutes including the approval for UNODC to further use the anti-corruption courthouse as its office.

New Staff

K. Raghavan, Consultant on anti-corruption, programming and implementation

Seri Maslina, Finance Assistant

Deny Kurniawan, Admin and Logistic Clerk

UNODC Talk Series on "Indonesia's Fight against Corruption" 27 April 2011

This talk was held in Papua Room, UN Indonesia Office, Menara Thamrin, Jakarta.

Speakers : Commissioner General Ito Sumardi, Head of Criminal Investigation Department of the Indonesian National Police
Professor OC Kaligis, senior lawyer

Topic : Asset recovery and problem faced by Indonesia