New eLearning Centres launched: The Role of Capacity-building in Police Training

December, 2019 | ISLAMABAAD - COPAK

HIGHLIGHT

UNODC establishes Global eLearning Centres in northern Punjab, Pakistan to improve the capacity of police in using forensic and modern methods to investigate a crime.

To improve the investigation and forensic skills of the Police, UNODC Country Office Pakistan (COPAK) has provided assistance to the Punjab Police by establishing two new eLearning centres at the Police Headquarters in Gujrat and Gujranwala, located in the north of Punjab, Pakistan. The eLearning centres have been established under the Criminal Justice Programme (Sub-programme-II) of Pakistan Country Programme-II, supported by the Government of Norway.

UNODC has also provided, under the Criminal Justice Programme of UNODC COPAK, several Mobile Crime Scene Investigation Units to the Police in the region. The training of the Crime Protection Units from 23 Police Stations of Gujrat and Gujranwala has also been initiated to ensure that first response to a crime scene is improved and shreds of evidence are collected and protected without any contamination.

So far, UNODC has established 56 eLearning Centres in Pakistan, in close collaboration with 20 law enforcement agencies. These include 11 eLearning Centres for the Punjab Police, covering major training institutes and important field locations in Punjab. UNODC Global eLearning modules, relevant in areas of improving the investigation skills, evidence collection and case preparation for the effective prosecution of criminal cases have been integrated within the training synopsis of the field police officials.

Localization of 'Crime Scene Investigation' Modules in Urdu

September, 2019 | ISLAMABAAD - COPAK

The Global eLearning Programme has localized the three Crime Scene Investigation (CSI) eLearning modules in the Urdu language to deliver to police officials through the existing network of 55 eLearning centres established by UNODC across Pakistan. The eLearning modules cover topics including Basic Crime Scene Procedures, Crime Scene First Responder and Crime Scene Awareness with up-to-date lessons and relevant training materials.

The UNODC Country Office in Pakistan (COPAK), under the Pakistan Country Programme, aims to enhance the technical and operational capacity of the Police through training sessions on crime scene investigation and forensic examination skills and provision of related equipment. The project titled “Criminal Justice and Legislative Reforms” addresses the training needs of the Provincial Police and Prosecution departments in Pakistan by conducting joint training sessions on specialized topics. This includes the delivery of eLearning curricula dovetailed to classroom sessions.
March 18, 2019 Benin

A Mobile Training Unit was delivered to Benin’s Law Enforcement Agencies. This is being implemented by UNODC in partnership with the Economic Community of West Africa States (ECOWAS) to support their efforts in combating drug trafficking, drug abuse, and organized crimes related to these activities in the region of West Africa.

March, 2019 PRAIA - PO Cape Verde

In Cape Verde, a Mobile Training Unit was delivered to the UNODC/ECOWAS Project, under the supervision of UNODC. The participants from Law Enforcement Agencies tried UNODC training modules using MTUs provided by UNODC on the spot.
In Gambia, the very first UNODC eLearning Mobile Training Unit (MTU) was delivered to Gambia’s law enforcement community for the capacity building of their law enforcement. This gave law enforcement officials the opportunity to be trained with eLearning modules on the topics covering the UNODC mandates.

In Senegal, two Global eLearning Mobile Training Units were handed over to Senegal’s Law Enforcement Agencies in March 2019. All the participants have been trained to be trainers and should be able to operate the MTU to train their colleagues.
December 7, 2018 FREETOWN - PO Sierra Leone

The Trans Organized Crime Unit (TOCU) of Sierra Leone received a Mobile Training Unit for Law Enforcement Services capacity building from UNODC, which is a progression of UNODC/ECOWAS project.

Togo

March 11, 2019 TOGO

The first Mobile Training Unit deployment was held successfully in Togo, with support from Togolese authorities and their commitment to capacity building of their law enforcement agencies to fight drugs and crime.

December 2019 VIENNA - UNODC Global eLearning Programme has launched a total of 35 modules in 2019. Seven modules are in English and 28 modules are available in other languages such as Arabic, French, Portuguese, Russian, Spanish, and Urdu.

The modules cover different thematic areas such as crime scene investigation, anti-corruption, International Narcotics Control Board (INCB), judicial ethics, organized crime, counter-terrorism, and the Nelson Mandela Rules.

FAQ

Where can I check my certificate of completion and my learning situation?

UNODC eLearning certificates are generated by the system for validation purposes. Once you have completed the course, you can go back to ‘My Learning Page’ and check your certificates on the left-sided ‘Quick Links’.

We would like to remind you that all final tests in the eLearning system need to be completed with a score of 80% or higher; otherwise you can retake the final assessment in order to get your certificate.

Where can I get more details about the newest modules and any updates of the programme?

Please check the quarterly newsletters, which can be accessed in the following link: https://www.unodc.org/elearning/en/newsletters.html.

Moreover, you can follow our eLearning Programme on social media to check out the latest news and activities. We are currently active on Twitter @UNODC_eLearning and LinkedIn “@UNODC eLearning”.

How can I gain access to my data page? How to edit my data? Or Can I modify my personal information after registration?

After creating your credentials in our system, you need to keep the username and email details as reference. In case you want to change your data due to personal reasons, such as the changes of surname, working agency and job titles etc., we would like to kindly ask you to provide us the username and registered email in the system in order to further look into your request and modify your data for you. Thank you for understanding.

What if I forgot my passwords?

Please go to this website: https://golearn.unodc.org/lms/login/forgot_password.php

To reset your password, submit your username or your email address below. If we can find you in the database, an email will be sent to your email address with instructions on how to get access again.

Can I get an authentic certificate from UNODC eLearning Programme and Institution?

We do not provide physical delivery of certificates at this time. We do encourage you to finish the final quiz and print out the certificates by yourself.

Is the course chargeable? How many members can attain from our company? What are the documentation requirements?

The UNODC Global eLearning Programme covers UNODC thematic areas delivered through 34 training courses in English composed by 458 modules in English and other languages to ensure tailored capacity-building to the Member States.

Please note that access to the ‘restricted’ area of the Global eLearning Platform is reserved to designated groups of officers from the Member States’ government authorities/organizations upon agreement with UNODC.

We receive hundreds of single requests to access our platform, and try our best to prioritize our delivery. If the institution you represent/belong to is interested in receiving UNODC eLearning training in any of the areas encompassed by the UNODC mandates, we are able to provide access to all users in your company as needed. However, we do not currently offer individually personalized deliveries.

Why can I not enrol in Integrity Awareness Course?

If you wish to access the Integrity Awareness Course, please note that the course is no longer hosted by the UNODC Global eLearning Platform and can now be accessed at http://golearn-integrity.unodc.org.
