Seventh session

Vienna, 6-10 October 2014

Item 2 of the provisional agenda*

Review of the implementation of the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime and the Protocols thereto

Austria, France, Italy and Mexico: revised draft resolution

Strengthening the implementation of the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime and the Protocols thereto

The Conference of the Parties to the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime,

PP1 Recalling that the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime and the Protocols thereto¹ represent the principal worldwide legal instruments to combat the scourge of transnational organized crime, which affects individuals and societies in all countries, and reaffirming their importance as main tools available to the international community for this purpose,

PP2 Reaffirming the importance of the Convention and the Protocols thereto, recognizing that those instruments offer expanded opportunities for international cooperation in the fight against transnational organized crime, and convinced that in this regard the potential of these instruments is yet to be fully developed,

PP3 Reaffirming also that the purpose of the Convention and the Protocols thereto is, inter alia, to promote cooperation to prevent and combat transnational organized crime more effectively, and stressing the need to take additional concerted action to reinforce the implementation of the Convention and the Protocols thereto by States Parties and identify related technical assistance needs,

PP4 Recalling article 32 of the Convention, as well as resolution 5/1 of the Conference and General Assembly resolution 68/193, in which, inter alia, the need for the establishment of a mechanism to review the implementation of the Convention and the Protocols thereto by States Parties was reiterated,

PP6 Recalling further that, in its resolution 6/1, it underlined the need for the urgent adoption of a mechanism for the review of implementation of the Convention and the Protocols thereto, aimed at assisting States Parties in the implementation of those instruments, and urged States Parties to continue to be actively engaged in that endeavour, on the basis of the work already accomplished by the open-ended intergovernmental working group on the review of the implementation of the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime and the Protocols thereto, and noting with appreciation the informal consultations on the establishment of a review mechanism held before the Seventh session of the Conference,

PP7 Recalling its decision 4/1 and resolution 5/5, regarding the need to study options for an adequate and efficient review mechanism, to strengthen the actions at the international level to prevent and combat transnational organized crime,

PP8 Reaffirming the principles contained in its resolution 5/5,

Alt. PP8 Recalling art. 28 of the Convention and its decisions 1/2 and 2/1, and stressing the need for the Conference to gather information supplied by States Parties and other interested States on a systematic basis on their implementation of the Convention and the Protocols thereto, and to make the best use of all the tools developed so far by the Secretariat of the Conference of the Parties,

PP11 Recalling its decisions 2/2, 2/6, 3/2, 4/3 and 4/4, as well as its resolutions 5/3 and 5/4, and emphasizing the usefulness of the existing Working Groups to advise and assist the Conference of the Parties on the implementation of its mandate, with regard to the Convention as a whole and the Protocols thereto,

PP14 Recalling articles 29 and 30 of the Convention and stressing the connections between the review of the implementation of the Convention and the Protocols thereto and the elaboration and provision of technical assistance programmes, to requesting States Parties, with a view to combating transnational organized crime,

PP16 Welcoming the role and contributions of signatories, non-signatories, relevant intergovernmental organizations and non-governmental organizations in the activities of the Conference,

PP18 Welcoming with appreciation the recent accessions to and ratifications of the Convention and the Protocols thereto,

PP19 Noting with appreciation the awareness-raising and dissemination activities and the legislative assistance undertaken by the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime in support of the ratification and implementation of the Convention and the Protocols thereto,

1. Invites States that have not yet done so to consider ratifying or acceding to the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime and the Protocols thereto¹ and to effectively implement their provisions;

2. Urges States parties to the Convention and the Protocols thereto that have not yet done so to harmonize their national legislation in a manner consistent with their obligations thereunder;
