THURSDAY, 21 NOVEMBER

10:00 – 11:00
Drug policy advocacy in Thailand: Launch of the new civil society strategy
Location: IDU Networking Zone
Organizers: PSI, TDN, 12D, FAR, and IDPC

10:15 – 13:15
Skills Building Workshop
Engage and Empower: Women who Inject Drugs – Equality in Health and Social Services. TDN/RAIK THAI/Red Cross
Chair: Monica Beg, UNODC
Organizer: IDPC

- Global drug policy developments relevant to access of people who use drugs to HIV-related services - Challenges and opportunities
- Ms. Ann Fordham, IDPC
- Regional trends in HIV and drug use policies, and the importance of ASEAN, Ms. Fifa Rahman, Malaysian AIDS Council
- Empowering people who use drugs: the significance of building initiatives and meaningful participation, Mr. Bijay Pandey, ANPUD
- Drug policy developments, harm reduction and civil society advocacy in Thailand, Ms. Supatara Nacapew, Foundation for AIDS Rights, Thailand

16:15 – 19:15
Skills Building Workshop
Engage and Empower: Voices of People who Inject Drugs
Location: Hall M

10:30 – 12:00
Satellite Session
Expanding Access to Harm Reduction Services in Asia – Closing the gap by 2015
Location: Hall D
Co-Chairs: Dr. Monica Beg, UNODC and Mr. Pradeep Kakkatil, IDPC

- 1. Harm reduction in Asia - we can do more and better, Dr. Alex Wodak, Australia
- 2. Viet Nam experience in scaling up access to harm reduction services Dr. Nguyen Minh Tam, Vietnam Authority for HIV/AIDS Control (VAAC), Viet Nam
- 3. Pakistan experience in scaling up access to harm reduction services Mr. Tarig Zafar, Nai Zindagi, Pakistan
- 4. The role of people who inject drugs in the HIV response in Asia Mr. Sam Nugraha, ANPUD

17:30 – 19:00
Satellite Session
Compulsory Centres for Detention of Drug Users (CCDUs)
Location: Hall B

- 1. From Compulsory Detention to Cure and Care: Practical experience from Malaysia, Dr. Sangeeth Kaur, Malaysia
- 2. Methadone treatment: a catalyst for a shift away from compulsory rehabilitation centers in Vietnam Mrs. Vuong Thi Thuong, Vietnam
- 3. The role of academia and civil society in advocating for alternatives to compulsory detention in China Professor Xiaomei Zhai, China
- 4. The Justice Health Initiative in Thailand

FRIDAY, 22 NOVEMBER

10:30 – 12:00
Oral Session
A Comprehensive Approach to Harm Reduction
Location: Hall I

1. I. Adam Yee, Malaysia
2. S. Kaeawjumpha, Thailand
3. B. Mustaqiem, Indonesia
4. B. Philavong, Lao PDR
5. S. Thet Lwin, Myanmar

12:15 – 13:45
Satellite Session
Effective HIV Approaches: Promoting and Protecting Health and Human Rights in Prisons
Location: Hall D
Organizer: UNODC

1. Effective interventions in prisons and launch of new UNODC WHO guidance on needle and syringe programmes in prisons. Dr. Fabienne Hariga, UNODC
2. Overview of HIV and health in prisons in Asia. Dr. Anne Bergensten, UNODC
3. Implementation of “Bangkok Rules” for the treatment of women prisoners Dr. Yossawan Boriboonthana, Thailand Institute of Justice
5. Implementation of HIV services, including opioid substitution treatment, in Tihar prison in India Dr. Narinder Kumar Girdhar, New Delhi, India

14:00 – 15:30
Satellite Session
What can we do to scale up OST in Asia?
Location: Hall E
Organizer: Emmanuel Hospital Association, Project ORCHID

1. A. Ambekar, India
2. B. Vicksnagam, Malaysia
3. T. Azim, Bangladesh
4. S. Munirathan, India