Internship Objective:

UNODC Regional Office for Southeast Asia and the Pacific is mandated to provide governments of countries of the Southeast Asia region with technical assistance to enhance the capacity of law enforcement agencies, justice-delivery services and health authorities. UNODC mandates identify a number of key outputs with specific activities, which contribute to the overall improvement of government services in Southeast Asia. A key element for the effective implementation of UNODC's regional mandate includes border management.

Transnational organised crime crosses national borders, and slowing or stopping illicit movements of people and goods remains a top priority for law enforcement agencies. UNODC assistance to the region is guided by the Regional Programme for Southeast Asia 2014-2017. A central component of this programme is Sub-Programme 1: Transnational Organised Crime and Illicit Trafficking, which includes Outcome 5: Member States establish improved border control mechanisms and capacities, through cross-border cooperation. Importantly, strengthening border management also benefits other outcome areas covering transnational crimes. Increased cross-border cooperation through the UNODC Border Liaison Office network is a key element in tackling transnational threats in Southeast Asia.

Under the overall supervision of the Regional Representative and direct supervision of the Regional Coordinator for Border Management, the intern shall support programme implementation, maintain effective cross-border cooperation through the UNODC Border Liaison Office network, and support the overall activities in the office.
