

Country	Family Name(s)	First Name(s)	Present Position	Previous Positions / Relevant Experience
Austria	Fasching	Dominik	Head, Department “Prevention, Education, Basic Groundwork”, Federal Bureau of Anti-Corruption (BAK), Federal Ministry of Interior (MoI)	Prevention activities: analysis, development and implementation of prevention measures, practical implementation of empirical and theoretical findings; Compiling anonymous cases already decided by the court looking for possible similarities in relevant indicators; Collecting background information on specific forms of corruption; Production of vulnerability assessments in cooperation with agencies interested in developing corruption prevention measures; Organization of educational courses on corruption and abuse of authority, and national conferences and events; Collection and analysis of relevant statistical data, and production of corruption status report; Former police officer, graduate of political sciences, with extensive experience in investigations, project and team management; Expert in anti-corruption prevention; Member of national inter-ministerial working group for development and implementation of the code of conduct for Austrian civil service; Member of a working group on analytical assessment tools for the prevention of corruption in the framework of the United Nations Interim Administration Mission in Kosovo; Co-chair of a workshop on the establishment of a code of ethics for police officers in Georgia.

Fally

Hermann

Head, Department “International Cooperation and Projects”, Federal Bureau of Anti-Corruption (BAK), Federal Ministry of Interior (MoI)

Responsibility for international cooperation, bi- and multilateral relations and international instruments; Cooperation in the field of anti-corruption, including mutual legal assistance; Point of contact for international organizations/bodies (e.g. UNODC, OLAF, INTERPOL, Europol); Point of contact for other ministries regarding international anti-corruption issues; Organization of conferences, seminars and workshops; Project manager of EACT-European Anti-Corruption Training project to promote exchange of information and development of best practices; Delegate to the Council of Europe Group of States Against Corruption (GRECO); Former police officer, graduated lawyer, held various advising and managerial positions in the Ministry of Interior; Expert in project and team management, anti-corruption matters, international cooperation; Member of International Network for the Independent Oversight of Police (INIOP) and of the OECD Convention.

Koger

Martina

Head, "International Instruments, Mechanisms and EU Cooperation" Unit, Deputy Head, Department "International Cooperation and Projects", Federal Bureau of Anti-Corruption (BAK), Federal Ministry of Interior (MoI)

Responsibility for planning and coordination of nominations for and participation in various international forums (GRECO, OECD, UNCAC, OSCE, etc.); Delegate to UNCAC and all relevant Working Groups; Strategic advisor for the BAK's international cooperation activities; National expert to international projects; BAK representative at international conferences and seminars; Responsibility for cooperation within relevant networks and contact point to EPAC/EACN; Delegate and participation in ministerial and inter-ministerial meetings and conferences related to implementation of international instruments, within network of OLAF/OAFCN, to anti-corruption activities of OSCE, to EU Council Working Group "General Matters including Evaluation"; Project team member in anti-corruption project and lecturer on anti-corruption within Ministry of Interior and for international delegations; Doctors degree in Social and Cultural Anthropology; Masters degree in Scandinavian Studies; Masters degree in Information, Documentation and Library Sciences; Former experience in information and documentation sector; Extensive involvement in anti-terrorism issues.

Loderbauer	Claudia	Expert, “International Cooperation and Mutual Legal Assistance”, Federal Bureau of Anti-Corruption (BAK), Federal Ministry of Interior (MoI)	Political advisor and research analyst, national expert in anti-corruption issues to the EU, OLAF, UN (CCPCJ, UNTOC, UNCAC); Project manager on anti-corruption projects; Austrian delegate to plenary meeting of the Council of Europe’s Group of States against Corruption (GRECO); Involvement in various anti-corruption projects (IACSS, EACT); Representative of BAK at inter-ministerial meetings; Drafting of reports on anti-corruption and legal issues; Maintenance of international contacts in the field of anti-corruption; Responsibility for execution of EU-funded project proposals; Lecturer of anti-corruption ; Extensive previous academic experience as researcher, consultant and lecturer.
Brandsetter	Andreas	Head, Unit 4.1 Bilateral and Multilateral Relations, International Police Cooperation, Federal Bureau of Anti-Corruption (BAK), Federal Ministry of Interior (MoI)	Management, supervision and execution of MLA in corruption-related cases, cooperation with various national and international institutions, exchange of best practice; Preparatory work inn improving national legislation to conform to international legal instruments, particularly UNCAC; Drafting progress reports on anti-corruption issues; Project manager for organization of European Anti-Corruption Training-EACT; Organization and chairing of national/international meetings; Lecturer in international relations, presenting international strategy of the MoI; Previous experience in various positions in the Moi, Courts of Law, Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Federal Chancellery.

Wieselthaler	Andreas	Director, Federal Bureau of Anti-Corruption, Federal Ministry of the Interior	Auditor of the Internal Security Department; Audit Manager of the Federal Administration Department; Deputy Head of the Judicial Administration and Domestic Affairs Department; Head of the Property and Environmental Crimes Unit in the Criminal Investigations Department of the Ministry of the Interior; Head of a special task force established by the Ministry of Interior's Directorate-General for Public Security; Lawyer in the Vienna Police Directorate; Police Officer in the Vienna Police Directorate
Wenk	Rene	Deputy Director, Federal Bureau of Anti-Corruption, Federal Ministry of the Interior	Vice-President of the International Anti-Corruption Summer School (IACSS); Deputy Chair of the Austrian Anti-Corruption Day; Member of the national inter-ministerial negotiation team for the establishment of the International Anti-Corruption Academy (IACA) in Austria; Financial and Human Resources Manager of the Federal Bureau of Anti-Corruption; Deputy Head of the team that established and implemented the independent anti-corruption authority; Deputy Director of the Federal Bureau for Internal Affairs; Project Manager of anti-corruption projects

Kreutner

Martin

Chair of the International Transition Team of the International Anti-Corruption Academy (IACA); President of the European Network of European Partners Against Corruption (EPAC/EACN)

Director of the Austrian Federal Bureau for Internal Affairs; former Chairman of IACA's Steering Committee (2008-2011); from 2010 to the beginning of 2011 Special Advisor to the Minister for anti-corruption affairs; former Vice-President and member of the EC of the European Healthcare Fraud and Corruption Network (EHFCN); Member of the European Commission of the International Association of Anti-Corruption Authorities (IAACA); Member of INTERPOL's International Group of Experts on Corruption (IGEC); Member of the Advisory Board of Transparency International – Austrian Chapter; Senior Anti-Corruption Consultant and Evaluator for programmes with the UN, Council of Europe and World Bank; Certified Court Expert on general criminology; Chairman of the Supreme Disciplinary Commission of the Federal Ministry of the Interior; Member of the Federal Appeals Tribunal; (Alternate) Head of Delegation at all CoSP's to the UNCAC; Head of the Austrian delegation to the third session of the CoSP to the UNCAC; Commissioned Officer in the Austrian Armed Forces