Implementation Review Group of the United Nations Convention against Corruption Third session
Vienna, 18-22 June 2012

Briefing for non-governmental organizations in accordance with resolution 4/6 of the Conference of the States Parties to the United Nations Convention against Corruption entitled “Non-governmental organizations and the Mechanism for the Review of Implementation of the United Nations Convention against Corruption”*

Programme for the briefing

Summary

In resolution 4/6 adopted at its fourth session, the Conference of the States Parties to the United Nations Convention against Corruption decided that briefings for non-governmental organizations would be conducted on the outcomes of the review process, including technical assistance needs identified. These briefings would be convened on the margins of the sessions of the Group and conducted by the secretariat in cooperation with a member of the bureau. The briefings are to be based on the reports of the Group, and thematic implementation and regional supplementary addenda. A summary of the briefing will be prepared and submitted to the Group as a conference room paper.

I. Outcomes of the review process

A. Introduction and general information

The secretariat will provide an introduction to the work of the Implementation Review Group since its first session as well as general information and statistics on the review process, based on the progress report available to the Group (CAC/COSP/IRG/2012/4).

B. Thematic implementation reports

The secretariat will provide an overview of the key findings contained in the thematic reports on the implementation of Chapters III (criminalization and law enforcement) and IV (international cooperation) as reflected in conference room papers available to the Group (CAC/COSP/IRG/2012/CRP.1 and 2).

An overview of technical assistance needs identified through the review process as reflected in the note by the secretariat (CAC/COSP/IRG/2012/3) will be provided, including UNODC activities in this respect.

II. Activities and contributions to the implementation of recommendations of the Group approved by the Conference

The Conference encouraged non-governmental organizations to report to it or the Group on their activities and contributions, including those related to meeting technical assistance needs and advancing capacity to effectively implement the Convention.
