The webinar addressed the main concepts of money laundering through the physical transportation of cash across international borders.

NETWORK OF FALSIFIED COVID-19 TESTS UNCOVERED IN COTE D’IVOIRE

The task force of Abidjan uncovered a network of falsified Covid-19 tests at the airport for passengers bound to North Africa. After two weeks of observations of departing passengers’ movements and verification of QR codes, task forces strongly suspected the use of fraudulent techniques from an organized illicit network. Following random checks on these flights, some passengers were found to present negative COVID tests with identical bar codes, resulting in the interception of 10 passengers. Health service agents who were supposed to scan the bar codes at Abidjan Airport were accomplices in the fraud.
