

14 February 2022

English only

---

Ad Hoc Committee to Elaborate a Comprehensive International Convention on Countering the Use of Information and Communications Technologies for Criminal Purposes

Session on organizational matters
New York, 24 February 2022

Modalities of the participation of multi-stakeholders<sup>1</sup> in the Ad Hoc Committee to Elaborate a Comprehensive International Convention on Countering the use of Information and Communication Technologies for Criminal Purposes

Note by the Secretariat

1. The present note was prepared by the Chair of the Ad Hoc Committee to outline the way in which multi-stakeholders may participate in the work of the Committee, as per operative paragraphs 7, 8, 9 and 10 of General Assembly resolution 75/282, and was approved by Member States on 14 December 2021 via a silence procedure.
2. Representatives of multi-stakeholders may participate in the Ad Hoc Committee work, as observers, without the right to vote. Such participation does not entail negotiation and drafting roles, which are exclusive prerogatives of Member States.
3. The participation of multi-stakeholders will consist of the following:
  - (a) Attending any open formal sessions of the Ad Hoc Committee;
  - (b) Depending on the availability of the time, they may make oral statements, at the end of discussions by Member States, on each substantive agenda item,

Given the limited time available at the meetings, multi-stakeholders may consider selecting among themselves spokespersons, in a balanced and transparent way, taking into account equitable geographic representation, gender parity and diversity of participating multi-stakeholders;

---

<sup>1</sup> In line with A/RES/75/282, these are: representatives of interested global and regional intergovernmental organizations, including representatives of United Nations bodies, specialized agencies and funds, as well as representatives of functional commissions of the Economic and Social Council; representatives of non-governmental organizations that are in consultative status with the Economic and Social Council; representatives of other relevant non-governmental organizations, civil society organizations, academic institutions and the private sector.

(c) Submitting written materials. Such submissions should be limited to 2,000 words. The submissions will be posted, in their original language, on the website of the Ad Hoc Committee.

4. In the intersessional period, the Chair will organize consultations with the multi-stakeholders to take stock of their inputs. A report in English on these consultations will be published on the website of the Ad Hoc Committee; the translation into other UN official languages is subject to the availability of documentation entitlements allocated to the Committee.

---