

HQ
Focal Point	Event / Initiative	Date	Brief Description	Registration / Participation Link	Updates from the Events/Initiatives (Photos, Articles, ...)	Participation: Numbers/Data
Sala Alnoami (UNODC Advocacy Section)	16 Days of Activism against Gender-Based Violence Advocacy Campaign	25 November -10 December	An Advocacy Campaign on UNODC's social media accounts to raise awareness about 16 Days of Activism against Gender-Based Violence and the launch of the Femicide Brief 2024. More information and a comprehensive set of social media assets can be found here .	N/A	https://trello.com/c/887WTS1M
Desset Abebe Teferi and Viktoriia Iakovlieva (UNOV/UNODC Gender Team)	Orange the Vienna International Centre	25 November -10 December	UNODC, together with CTBTO, are joining the Orange the World campaign by lighting up the Mural of the Vienna International Centre in orange throughout the 16 Days of Activism. This initiative reflects UNODC's commitment to ending violence against women and girls.	N/A	Photos: Orange the World Campaign 2024 Flickr 	N/A
Helin Herlbauer (UNOV/UNODC Gender Team) and Sven Pfeiffer (UNODC Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice Section)	From Awareness to Action: Strengthening Multi-Stakeholder Collaboration to Prevent Femicide	2 December	The event is jointly organized by the UNOV/UNODC Gender Team and UNODC Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice Section and features expert panellists to bring together diverse perspectives to address femicide prevention. The panel discussion will focus on femicide prevention and the latest trends in gender-related killings, to contribute to broader advocacy and stakeholder engagement to end gender-based violence. Panellists will share insights on promising practices for improving the evidence base and whole-of-society approaches aimed at eliminating gender-based violence, including the newest global data on femicide, the femicide reviews methodology, justice and police responses, and the crucial role of civil society organizations in providing essential services for victims and survivors. More information here .	https://shorturl.at/jekIM	https://www.unodc.org/unodc/en/gender/events/from-awareness-to-action-preventing-femicide-webinar-2024.html	98 participants
Hanna Sands (UNOV/UNODC, Program Coordinator (Gender))	Gender-based Violence and UNODC/UNOV	25 November 10:00-11:30 and 14:00-15:50 (CET)	Two webinars will be held on 25th of November focusing on the policies and response by UNODC/UNOV to Gender-based security incidents that affect staff. This will be a panel, hosted by the Gender unit, and speakers from VIC Medical Services, UNOV/UNODC Staff Counsellor, HRMS, UNDS and UNODC Security Adviser. The discussion will raise awareness with staff of the efforts to improve the enabling environment both in Vienna and in the field, in line with efforts to advance the Secretary General's Strategy on Gender Parity and other related efforts.	TBC		456 participants
Doris Resch (UNODC DTA, Secretariat to the Governing Bodies)	Orange the World: Vienna United to Eliminate Gender-Based Violence	22 November 13:00	The Commission on Narcotic Drugs (CND) and Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice (CCPCJ) hosted an event to mark the International Day for the Elimination of Violence Against Women and 16 Days of Activism Campaign. The event explored the intersections of gender-based violence with the thematic areas of work of CCPCJ and CND. It supports the UNITE to End Violence against Women initiative and the UN Women Beijing+30 campaign, underscoring the Commissions' dedication to addressing gender-based violence and promoting collaborative efforts, including with the Commission on the Status of Women (CSW), within the Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC) framework.	In person (Vienna) CR7 and online	Photos: Orange the World Campaign 2024 Flickr
Monica Clupagea, MD (HIV/AIDS Section, UNODC)	Preventing and Eliminating Gender Based Violence Among Women Who Use Drugs Trainings	November 2024 (in Brazil and South Africa)	The HIV/AIDS section at the UNODC will hold two trainings this quarter on preventing and eliminating gender-based violence (GBV) among women who use drugs, based on a recent briefing paper. The paper highlights the widespread GBV faced by women who use drugs and its link to the HIV epidemic. It also offers practical responses for harm reduction and allied services to address this issue, while promoting a gender-responsive approach that benefits women and people of diverse gender identities and expressions.	N/A
Francesca Massanello (RAB)	Launch of the Femicide Brief 2024	25 November	Research brief on Gender-related killings of women and girls(femicide/ feminicide), Global estimates of female intimate partner/family-related homicides, jointly produced by UNODC and UN Women.	N/A
Renata Delgado Schenk (UNODC OCB, CMLS)	Launching the Global Strategy to prevent and combat non-consensual sharing of intimate images	6 December	The Global Programme on Cybercrime as the lead of UNODC's technical assistance on cybercrime, together with the Civil Society Unit, will present its Global Strategy to prevent and combat non-consensual sharing of intimate images, an initiative to enhance a differentiated model of work based on technology-based solutions together with Southwest Grid for Learning (SWGfL).	https://shorturl.at/a7Mvj

Sonja Wintersberger(UNIS Vienna)	Events dedicated to the Orange the World Campaign and the International Day for the Elimination of Violence against Women	25 November 2024, 3pm-7.30pm, Vienna International Centre (VIC) and Embassy of Sweden (Schwedenhaus)	The Embassy of Sweden in cooperation with UNIS Vienna and UN Women Austria organized a panel discussion on violence against women at the UN in Vienna. The event was opening with remarks by John Brandolino, Director, Division of Treaty Affairs at UNODC, and Annika Markovic, Ambassador of Sweden to Austria and Permanent Representative to the International Organizations in Vienna. Panelists included: Simon Brezina, Project Manager at White Ribbon; Helene Gressenbauer-Rösner, President at UN Women Austria; Darrin Jones, Executive Director at INTERPOL; Nicole Krejci, Managing Director of the Violence Protection Center Vienna; Hanna Sands, Programme Coordinator (Gender) at UNODC. The event was moderated by Martin Nesirky, Director, United Nations Information Service (UNIS) Vienna. After the panel discussion, the participants were invited to take part in the so-called Orange Run: a symbolic six kilometres run from the Vienna International Centre to the Embassy of Sweden at Schwedenhaus. Around 50 runners showed their solidarity and support by wearing orange, representing a future free from violence. In honour of the campaign, the mural 'Woman with Dove' on one of the VIC towers was illuminated in orange. The lighting remained in place for the duration of the 16 days of activism. The evening ended with a reception at the Embassy of Sweden.		Photos: Orange the World Campaign 2024 Flickr  Social Media: UN Vienna Facebook: https://www.facebook.com/photo?fbid=954719610018417&setpcb.954722466684798 UN Vienna X: https://x.com/UN_Vienna/status/186108522311207188/photo/2 UN Vienna Instagram: https://www.instagram.com/p/DC3_Dc0oc-q?utm_source=ig_web_copy_link&igsh=MzRIODBINWFZA== Invite: Invitation_OrangetheWorldCampaign_event_25Nov.pdf Webstory: UNIS Vienna joins the global "Orange the World" campaign 2024 to end violence against women and girls
----------------------------------	---	--	---	--	---	--

South Asia, East Asia & The Pacific

Focal Point	Event / Initiative	Date	Brief Description	Registration / Participation Link	Updates and Participation from the Events/Initiatives (Photos, Articles, ...)	Participation: Numbers/Data
Polen khlem and Suchaya Mokkhasen (Border Management, ROSEAP, UNODC)	Help is always available	24 December	Series of online public campaign targeting border communities in Cambodia and off-line campaign with high school and university students from 3 border areas to create awareness on GBV	N/A
Daniela Dora Eilberg (UNODC ROSEAP)	"Deepfake and Technology Facilitated-Gender Based Violence" side event Asia-Pacific Ministerial Conference on the Beijing+30 Review	21 November	UNODC has showcased the Indonesia scenario on preventing and investigation of technology-facilitated gender-based violence (TFGBV) with the use of deepfake, and consider international standards for gender-responsive cybercrime strategy as well as health care. This webinar, part of the Ministerial Conference reviewing the Beijing Declaration and Platform for Action, convenes stakeholders from the Asia-Pacific region—including civil society organizations, governments, and researchers—to discuss strategies for enhancing digital security, combating TFGBV, and advancing gender equality through technology. Addressing knowledge and policy gaps, this event is crucial to fostering an inclusive, safe, and equitable digital environment where women and girls can fully participate, free from violence. Objectives of the session: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Discuss the rise of TFGBV in the Asia Pacific region and the challenges linked to achieving consensus on frameworks, definitions and metrics. • Draft a call for action based on experiences and interventions from national policymakers, civil society actors, and youth voices on their efforts to combat TFGBV. • Identify gaps and opportunities for an inter-ministerial response (evidence-based policy) to ensure digital security for everyone - and in particular, groups that experience intersecting forms of discrimination (women living with disabilities, LGBTQ youth). 	https://unu.edu/zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_CY98_mUQ_2in0BYskzrMA#/registration

Europe, West & Central Asia

Focal Point	Event / Initiative	Date	Brief Description	Registration / Participation Link	Updates and Participation from the Events/Initiatives (Photos, Articles, ...)	Participation: Numbers/Data
Madina Kalimova, Uktam Nasirov (UNODC Regional Office for Afghanistan, Central Asia, Iran and Pakistan)	Success stories of women leaders working in probation sector and anti-corruption agency of Kazakhstan	25-27 November	ROCA team will prepare and promote at least 3 success stories on social media and website, using the 16 days campaign title and slogan, hashtags	ROCA website and social media accounts
UNODC ROCA	Short interviews with CI women practitioners of Central Asia	2-6 December	With participation of police, prosecutors, judges, probation women practitioners to give 30 seconds statements on best practices and challenges of working in the in justice system	To be posted on social media

UNODC PO Turkmenistan	16 Days of Activism against Gender-Based Violence campaign	21 November	launch of the 16 Days of Activism against Gender-Based Violence campaign was held in the UN building in Ashgabat. The event was organized by the UNFPA together with UN agencies for representatives of the diplomatic corps and public organizations. The participants discussed ways to prevent violence against women, as well as opportunities for cooperation in this area.		https://www.instagram.com/p/DCoodm3tV_X/7img_index=1&gsh=Y3cSM2FzYXNydWt3
UNODC PO Turkmenistan	Awareness raising sessions	18-19 November	During the planned activities within the International TOC Day for high school and universities students, volunteers and youth at risk in Ashgabat	18 November - in person 19 November - in person and online		18 November – 120 high school students – session conducted by woman led NGO Yenme during International TOC Day. 19 November – more than 100 young people – simulation activity during International TOC Day lead by UNODC. 19 December – 50 representatives of group at risk, civil societies and local municipalities, participants of the Preventing human trafficking and promoting safe migration seminar - session led by UNODC. 25-27 November – UNODC national training for 30 psychologists working with women from vulnerable groups of population and experienced in violence. The heartbreaking life stories of some women victims of violence were displayed by NGOs for public viewing in the UN lobby. 2-6 December – 30 participants of the national training on referral mechanism for TIP victims for representatives of GPO and Ministry of Labor. 3-5 December – 18 pax of the National workshop on Strategic Trade and Expert Control – session will be led by UNODC.
UNODC PO Turkmenistan	Advocacy and awareness raising event and exhibition in the UN House	25 November	Organized by UNFPA with participation of UNRCO and UNODC, local embassies, drug addiction specialists and youth	in person event, online connection planned
UNODC CO Afghanistan	Advocacy Campaign, Community Outreach & Support to female detainees	25 November - 10 December	Following activities will be conducted by Solidarity for Afghan Families (SAF), the implementing partner of UNODC CAOFG: 1. Community Outreach and Education: Community outreach teams in Kabul will engage with women in urban areas, raising awareness on GBV prevention and providing information on available support resources. 2. Support for Female Detainees: Inside the Kabul & Herat female prisons, SAF will hold specialized counseling sessions with detainees, addressing themes of resilience, empowerment, and support systems for women affected by violence. Through vocational training in tailoring and carpet weaving, we aim to build skills that foster independence and self-esteem among participants. 3. Health and Mental Health Services: Healthcare facilities in Herat continue to serve women who experience physical and mental health challenges related to trauma. During the campaign period, SAF will place additional focus on mental health support, conducting targeted sessions on coping strategies and the importance of mental well-being. Each of these initiatives is designed to address the specific needs of women facing various forms of GBV, whether in the community, detention settings, or healthcare facilities. We aim to amplify their voices, provide supportive resources, and contribute to the broader objectives of the 16 Days of Activism campaign	N/A
Africa & The Middle East
Focal Point	Event / Initiative	Date	Brief Description	Registration / Participation Link	Updates and Participation from the Events/Initiatives (Photos, Articles, ...)	Participation: Numbers/Data
Annalisa Pauciuolo, (UNODC ROSEN, Trafficking In Persons and Smuggling of Migrants Unit)	Regional event on Gender/Human Rights	4-5 December	Following these events, a communications campaign will be made as part of the campaign #NoExcuse: Take action to stop violence against women: Videos of African women in law present at the event will be produced for a social media campaign on how women in law are in the front line to prevent and combat transnational organized crime putting the survival of women victims at the centre of their work. Videos of African women in law present at the event will be produced for a social media campaign on how women in law are in the front line to prevent and combat

Annalisa Pauciullo (UNODC ROSEN Trafficking in Persons and Smuggling of Migrants Unit)	Annual Summit of the Network of Women in Law and Policy against Organized Crime	2-3 December (in Dakar, Senegal)	transnational organized crime putting the survival of women victims at the centre of their work.
Nariman ElGendy (UNODC Qatar)	Violence against women in cyber space	1-7 December	A week-long social media awareness campaign that will be posted on the GPC online platforms in both English and Arabic. The objective of the campaign is to raise awareness about key concepts related to cyber violence against women and girls (CVAWG), including online sexual harassment, child grooming, cyberbullying, and the impact these issues can have, such as leading to femicide.	N/A
Linda Naidoo (UNODC ROSAF) Project Officer	Launch of Namibian Resource Handbook for Law Enforcement on Gender Based Violence	3-5 December	A recently drafted handbook for law enforcement, tailored for the Namibian context on gender-based violence will be launched by the Inspector General. The launch will be followed by a 3-day training programme for NAMPOL	In person event
Linda Naidoo (UNODC ROSAF) Project Officer	Launch of Namibian Resource Handbook for Prosecutors on Gender Based Violence	26-28 November	A recently drafted handbook tailored for Prosecutors for the Namibian context, on gender-based violence will be launched by the Prosecutor General. The launch will be followed by a 3-day training programme for NAMPOL	In person event
Linda Naidoo (UNODC ROSAF) Project Officer	Launch of the South African Handbook for the Judiciary on Gender Based Violence	TBC	Collaboratively with the South African Judicial Education Institute, South- African Chapter of International Women Judges and the Chief Justice, a handbook on Gender Based Violence drafted for South Africa, will be launched	In person event
Linda Naidoo (UNODC ROSAF) Project Officer	Finalisation of a PSEA Strategy and Referral Mechanism	11-12 Dec	In collaboration with the UN Interagency Task Team, WHO and UNODC will be hosting a workshop with government and civil society organisation to draft a PSEA Strategy and Referral mechanism	In person event
Aishat Braimah (UNODC CO Nigeria)	Launch Event of the 16 Days of Activism Campaign (in collaboration with the Office of the Senior Special Assistant to the Presidency on Citizenship and Leadership)	25 November	The high-level event will feature two panel discussions, focusing on the following areas: The Role of Leaders and Citizens in Combatting GBV – This panel will examine, amongst other issues, how leaders can strengthen legal and policy frameworks and increase investment in GBV prevention, as well as how citizens can engage in advocacy and civic action and provide better support to victims and survivors. Women's Representation: The Role We Must All Play – This panel will centre on the findings of UNODC's Third Corruption Survey in Nigeria, which explores the relationship between gender and corruption in Nigeria and highlight how limited access to public sector roles and decision-making positions perpetuates gender inequalities and contributes to structural violence. It will also focus on the integration of gender perspectives into Nigeria's anti-corruption policies and proffer practical recommendations to ensure women's equal access to public services and leadership positions.	In person	Guardian Newspaper: https://guardian.ng/news/gender-based-violence-kills-one-woman-every-10-minutes-says-fg-unodc/#google_vignette Voice of Nigeria Newspaper: https://von.gov.ng/unodc-laments-rise-in-gender-based-violence/
					Leadership Newspaper: https://leadership.ng/16-days-of-activism-on-gbv-unodc-decries-increasing-violence/#google_vignette Citizen Reports Newspaper: https://thecitizenreports.com/2024/11/26/rinsola-advocates-16-days-of-activism-gbv/

Aishat Braimah (UNODC CO Nigeria)	Community engagement (in collaboration with the Office of the Senior Special Assistant to the Presidency on Citizenship and Leadership)	28 November	The community town hall, will provide a platform to discuss and respond to experiences and immediate concerns of local communities, focused on the following areas: The Role of Leaders and Citizens in Combating GBV – The discussion will examine, amongst other issues, how community leaders can contribute to the strengthening of legal and policy frameworks and promote gender equality as a core social value, as well as how citizens can challenge harmful stereotypes and build safe spaces for survivors in communities. Women's Representation: The Role We Must All Play – The discussion will centre on the findings of UNODC's Third Corruption Survey in Nigeria, which explores the relationship between gender and corruption in Nigeria and addresses how limited access to public sector roles and decision-making positions perpetuates gender inequalities and contributes to structural violence. It will provide an opportunity to engage local communities on gender inequalities borne from social norms, the impact of unpaid labour on women, and the need for equitable access to public services, while empowering communities to demand gender-sensitive governance and hold public institutions accountable for addressing corruption that disproportionately affects marginalized groups.	In person
Aishat Braimah (UNODC CO Nigeria)	Media (TV and radio) appearances (in collaboration with the Office of the Senior Special Assistant to the Presidency on Citizenship and Leadership)	29 November - 4 December	TV media appearances featuring the CONIG Country Representative, discussing gender-based violence broadly, as well as structural violence borne from the limitation of access to public services and underrepresentation of women in decision making positions.	In person	Nigerian Info Radio (29 Nov)  AIT News Media Appearance (29 Nov)
Aishat Braimah (UNODC CO Nigeria)	UNCT social media campaign		As part as the UNCT commemoration of 16 Days of Activism, social media videos were taken of heads of agencies, including the CONIG Country Representative, showing their continued commitment to ending VAW/G and calling for more action from relevant stakeholders.	In person	YouTube: https://youtu.be/1ahpWd4n4ZM?si=XQ92IG_4kFcpdPw8
Vicky Tardon (UNODC ROEA)	Full Campaign of ROEA	25 November - 10 December	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Day 1: 1 minute social media video from Ashita. In this video she will highlight the current situation in East Africa on IPV, briefly highlight the support UNODC is providing to criminal justice sectors across the region to better handle IPV cases and other actions UNODC hopes to do in the future. • Day 4: Coordinate and organise internal hybrid training sessions within ROEA to increase staff awareness in understanding IPV and the personal roles staff can play in prevention and protection within our communities (use inhouse experts like Charity, Carmen, Maria and Vicky). – move to the 28th All Staff meeting • Day 5: Produce 2 minutes video of UNODC staff, highlighting the programmes have been providing technical assistance that prevent and address IPV in the region. (Uganda, PLEAD, Ethiopia, Madagascar, Djibouti) (partners to speak) • Day 6: Participation on the 'Trop Angels Race' against femicide in Eldoret. This event will also include community dialogue and potentially youth engagement. • Day 7: Organize 1hour-30 minutes exchange between civil society and criminal justice actors in Kenya and other select countries on challenges in accessing services for victims on IPV. • Day 9: Highlight the launch of the Uganda police call centre through a video of Sharon talking on how the call centre will contribute to reporting IPV cases. • Day 13: Exchange with the National Council on the Administration of Justice of Kenya Taskforce on SGBV on Policy and legislative gaps in protection of victims and survivors of IPV. (Charity can lead this visit). • Day 16: Organise 1-hour talk with University of Nairobi Students (including male students) on youth perspectives on current trends on IPV. 	N/A
Vicky Tardon (UNODC ROEA)	Advocacy Campaign	25 November	Participation in the 'Equality Cafe' Session, in collaboration with UN Women, with the occasion of the Launch of the UN Women/UNODC 2023 Report on Femicide. This event included a panel discussion with activists, UN experts and criminal justice actors on the realities and field experiences on SGBV. This session also served as a media sensitization activity on reporting SGBV.	In Person (Nairobi, Kenya)	https://x.com/unwomenafrica/status/1861127668168826943
Vicky Tardon (UNODC ROEA)	Staff dialogue on intimate partner violence Love Shouldn't Hurt: break the silence against intimate partner violence	28 November	All-staff dialogue, to provide a deeper understanding on key concepts on the Beijing Platform for Action and relevant international framework for the eradication of VAWG. The session further sensitized ROEA staff on IPV, including concepts and case scenarios.	Virtual

Vicky Tardon (UNODC ROEA)	'Run Against Femicide'	30 November (in Eldoret, Kenya)	Participation on sports event coordinated in collaboration with UN Women and Tirop's Angels (CSO), to raise community awareness on Femicides, including youth sensitization and provision of public platform on services available for reporting	In person (Eldoret, Kenya)	https://x.com/UNODC_EA/status/1863523306164408396
Ilyes Kessal, Prog Coordinator (UNODC ROMENA, CPCJ Regional Programme, PO Tunisia)	One UN "UNITED CAMPAIGN" to raise awareness on GBV	25 November - 11 December	UNODC will participate in Tunisia UN Communication Group event "United Campaign", aiming to raising awareness on GBV. Two activities will be organized by UNODC : 1) Drug use and GBV - Focus Group with women with drug use disorders at the women healthcare center TANIT Recovery 2) Sensitization workshop on GBV with adolescents in collaboration with a school, including a theatre piece played by a group of young people from the school		First activity: Facebook LinkedIn X EN X FR X AR Second activity: Facebook LinkedIn X EN X AR X FR Third activity: Facebook X EN X AR
Mutasem Awad (UNODC ROMENA, Palestine)		25 November - 10 December	Organizing two comprehensive workshops for 50 Public Prosecutors and Judges focused on enhancing their effective response to victims of sexual and gender-based violence (SGBV). These workshops will provide critical insights into trauma-informed legal practices, evidence handling, reluctant witness, child and disabled victims and judicial procedures to ensure the protection and support of these groups of survivors. In addition, we will conduct two specialized workshops for 50 service providers in the West Bank, aiming to improve their ability to respond to the needs of traumatized victims, with a focus on practical skills and trauma-sensitive approaches. Furthermore, as part of our broader awareness-raising efforts, we will launch a media campaign that includes radio spots, social media reels, and billboard advertisements. This campaign will seek to engage the public, raise awareness about SGBV, and promote understanding of the resources available for survivors.	N/A	Coverage of comprehensive workshops for 52 public prosecutors and judges focused on enhancing their effective response to SGBV victims. Facebook LinkedIn X EN X AR
Nouran AbdelGhaffar (UNODC ROMENA)	"Your Voices" Campaign		As part of the HAYA Joint Programme and aligned with the 16 Days campaign, we launched the "Your Voices" campaign.		Press releases in English and Arabic: EN: Press Release: "Your Voices": New Campaign Launched by the HAYA Joint Programme to Support Survivors of Violence AR: بيان صحفي: "صوتكم"، حملة جديدة بطلبها برنامج حياة المشترك لدعم الناجيات من العنف The first reel of the Your Voice campaign, aimed at raising awareness about services for women and girls affected by gender-based violence, has been shared on ROMENA platforms. Social media links: LinkedIn Facebook X EN - X AR FB: Aival Radio Network-ARN The second reel on mental health and psychosocial support to women in Gaza was also disseminated across our platforms. LinkedIn Facebook X EN X AR We also shared a third video on the Hayat center in Gaza and services to women and girls' victims of gender-based violence. LinkedIn Facebook X EN X AR Radio spots and billboard advertisements as part of UNODC's media outreach efforts.
Latin America & The Caribbean
Focal Point	Event / Initiative	Date	Brief Description	Registration / Participation Link	Updates and Participation from the Events/Initiatives (Photos, Articles, ...)	Participation: Numbers/Data
Maria Eugenia Garcia (UNODC CO Mexico)	Advocacy and awareness raising around the Police+ Project	25 November - 10 December	Organising a series of advocacy material and communiques, together with the Advocacy team at HQ, that will focus on the Policia+ project in Mexico - a project aimed at enhancing the capacity of police on GBV.	N/A

Claudia Catalina Montanez Ruiz (UNODC ROCOL)	Digital content creation for the Andean Region and the Southern Cone	25 November – 10 December	ROCOL will share videos and posts on Instagram, LinkedIn and X on the following topics: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Overview of feminicides and prevention strategies. - Failures of the justice system in cases of GBV. - Testimony of Carlina Esterilla, a social leader from Putumayo, on women's access to justice in GBV cases. - Understanding GBV and the crucial role of activism in addressing it. - Institutional response to femicide. - Preventing femicide through coordinated efforts between civil society and institutions. - The importance of social organizations in preventing GBV. - Sanctions for perpetrators and restorative measures for GBV survivors. - The role of men in preventing and eliminating violence against women. - Key facts on GBV. Additionally, an article will be published on ROCOL website about the early detection tool for feminicides that was built by the Justice and Violence Prevention Area of the Office.	N/A
Claudia Catalina Montanez Ruiz (UNODC ROCOL)	Corruption and Gender in Ecuador: impacts, challenges and solutions	3 December	Corruption not only affects institutions and justice, but it also exacerbates structural barriers that limit women's access to fundamental rights. Therefore, the objective of the event is to analyze the impacts of corruption on women and men, to design strategies that prevent and address corruption, while promoting gender equality. The topics will include: i) impacts of corruption, ii) corruption and its effect on access to justice, and iii) transparency and gender equality. The event will be held in person in Quito, with participation from the judiciary, civil society, and academia.	In person event
Sylvie Bertrand (UNODC ROPAN)	Cine forum against gender discrimination	November 18 (Chalatenango), 20 (Santa Ana) and 25 (San Salvador)	On the occasion of the International Day for the Elimination of Violence against Women, UNODC and the PDDH will hold a cine forum to project the film Breaking the Circle, followed by a discussion panel. The event is aimed at participants from the justice sector, civil society and university students.	In Person
Marcia Pacheco (UNODC ROCOL, CO Bolivia)	Contest on Sentencing with a Gender perspective	26 November	Involving students at the judicial school of Sucre and conducted in coordination with EJE, the Committee on Gender, UNFPA, UN Women and the Human Rights Community	In Person
Marcia Pacheco (UNODC ROCOL, CO Bolivia)	Training for Psychologists at SEVDAPI	5 December	Training on psychological and legal concerns to be held in La Paz in coordination with the Public Ministry.	In Person
Marcia Pacheco (UNODC ROCOL, CO Bolivia)	Presentation of the guidelines of the sole declaration and protection measures	27-29 November	Conducted in Sucre in coordination with the Public Ministry.	In Person
Marcia Pacheco (UNODC ROCOL, CO Bolivia)	Training on the protocol for attention to victims at SEVDAPI	12-13 December	Conducted in coordination with the Plurinational Service of Attention to Victims (SEVDAPI) to be conducted in La Paz.	In Person
Andrea Villalba (UNODC Ecuador)	"Corruption and Gender: Impacts, Challenges and Solutions."	3 December	This event aimed to highlight how corruption perpetuates gender discrimination, preventing women in their diversity from living in equitable societies free of violence. By integrating a gender approach in the prevention and fight against corruption, we promote a structural change that not only improves transparency and accountability, but also contributes to inclusive and sustainable development.	In Person (Quito, Ecuador)		