I – Chapter II : Preventive measures

Article 6, Preventive anti-corruption body or bodies :

1. Each State Party shall, in accordance with the fundamental principles of its legal system, ensure the existence of a body or bodies, as appropriate, that prevent corruption by such means as:
   a) implementing the policies referred to in article 5 of this Convention and, where appropriate, overseeing and coordinating the implementation of those policies;
   b) Increasing and disseminating knowledge about the prevention of corruption.
2. Each State Party shall grant the body or bodies referred to in paragraph 1 of this article the necessary independence, in accordance with the fundamental principles of its legal system, to enable the body or bodies to carry out its or their functions effectively and free from any undue influence. The necessary material resources and specialized staff, as well as the training that such staff may require to carry out their functions, should be provided.
3. Each State Party shall inform the Secretary-General of the United Nations of the name and address of the authority or authorities that may assist other States Parties in developing and implementing specific measures for the prevention of corruption.

(a) Summary of information relevant to reviewing the implementation of the article

[Country name] indicated that it has implemented the provision under review and cited the following legal provisions related to the creation, the missions and the finances of the National Corruption Prevention Commission (NCPC):

Article 25 of the law of UNCAC Republic

The National Corruption Prevention Commission shall :

- Collect, analyze and make available to the judicial and prosecution authorities, all information related to the detection and the repression of corruption, fraud or related activities committed by any public or private person
- Promote good governance, included in the international commercial exchanges
- Receive alerts from natural and legal persons related to corruption or related activities
- Formulate, upon request from administrative authorities, advice on preventive measures.

Article 27 of the law of UNCAC Republic

The main part of the National Corruption Prevention Commission’s finances is charged on the State budget. The commission has also the opportunity to ask for voluntary contributions from regional and international partners.
(b) Observations on the implementation of the article
Anticor Land

I – Chapter II : Preventive measures

Article 6, Preventive anti-corruption body or bodies :

1. Each State Party shall, in accordance with the fundamental principles of its legal system, ensure the existence of a body or bodies, as appropriate, that prevent corruption by such means as:
   a) implementing the policies referred to in article 5 of this Convention and, where appropriate, overseeing and coordinating the implementation of those policies;
   b) Increasing and disseminating knowledge about the prevention of corruption.

2. Each State Party shall grant the body or bodies referred to in paragraph 1 of this article the necessary independence, in accordance with the fundamental principles of its legal system, to enable the body or bodies to carry out its or their functions effectively and free from any undue influence. The necessary material resources and specialized staff, as well as the training that such staff may require to carry out their functions, should be provided.

3. Each State Party shall inform the Secretary-General of the United Nations of the name and address of the authority or authorities that may assist other States Parties in developing and implementing specific measures for the prevention of corruption.

(b) Summary of information relevant to reviewing the implementation of the article

[Country name] indicated that it has implemented the provision under review and cited the following legal provisions related to the creation, the missions and the finances of the National Corruption Prevention Commission (NCPC):

Article 25 of the law of Anticor Land

The National Corruption Prevention Commission shall :

- Collect, analyze and make available to the judicial and prosecution authorities, all information related to the detection and the repression of corruption, fraud or related activities committed by any public or private person
- Promote good governance, included in the international commercial exchanges
- Receive alerts from natural and legal persons related to corruption or related activities
- Formulate, upon request from administrative authorities, advice on preventive measures.

Article 27 of the law of Anticor Land

The main part of the National Corruption Prevention Commission’s finances is charged on the State budget. The commission has also the opportunity to ask for voluntary contributions from regional and international partners.
(b) Observations on the implementation of the article
Kingdom of Ethics

I – Chapter II : Preventive measures

Article 6, Preventive anti-corruption body or bodies :

1. Each State Party shall, in accordance with the fundamental principles of its legal system, ensure the existence of a body or bodies, as appropriate, that prevent corruption by such means as:
   a) implementing the policies referred to in article 5 of this Convention and, where appropriate, overseeing and coordinating the implementation of those policies;
   b) Increasing and disseminating knowledge about the prevention of corruption.
2. Each State Party shall grant the body or bodies referred to in paragraph 1 of this article the necessary independence, in accordance with the fundamental principles of its legal system, to enable the body or bodies to carry out its or their functions effectively and free from any undue influence. The necessary material resources and specialized staff, as well as the training that such staff may require to carry out their functions, should be provided.
3. Each State Party shall inform the Secretary-General of the United Nations of the name and address of the authority or authorities that may assist other States Parties in developing and implementing specific measures for the prevention of corruption.

(c) Summary of information relevant to reviewing the implementation of the article

[Country name] indicated that it has implemented the provision under review and cited the following legal provisions related to the creation, the missions and the finances of the National Corruption Prevention Commission (NCPC) :

Article 25 of the law of Kingdom of Ethis

The National Corruption Prevention Commission shall :

- Collect, analyze and make available to the judicial and prosecution authorities, all information related to the detection and the repression of corruption, fraud or related activities committed by any public or private person
- Promote good governance, included in the international commercial exchanges
- Receive alerts from natural and legal persons related to corruption or related activities
- Formulate, upon request from administrative authorities, advice on preventive measures.

Article 27 of the law of Kingdom of Ethis

The main part of the National Corruption Prevention Commission’s finances is charged on the State budget. The commission has also the opportunity to ask for voluntary contributions from regional and international partners.
(b) Observations on the implementation of the article
I – Chapter II : Preventive measures

Article 6, Preventive anti-corruption body or bodies :

1. Each State Party shall, in accordance with the fundamental principles of its legal system, ensure the existence of a body or bodies, as appropriate, that prevent corruption by such means as:
   a) implementing the policies referred to in article 5 of this Convention and, where appropriate, overseeing and coordinating the implementation of those policies;
   b) Increasing and disseminating knowledge about the prevention of corruption.
2. Each State Party shall grant the body or bodies referred to in paragraph 1 of this article the necessary independence, in accordance with the fundamental principles of its legal system, to enable the body or bodies to carry out its or their functions effectively and free from any undue influence. The necessary material resources and specialized staff, as well as the training that such staff may require to carry out their functions, should be provided.
3. Each State Party shall inform the Secretary-General of the United Nations of the name and address of the authority or authorities that may assist other States Parties in developing and implementing specific measures for the prevention of corruption.

(d) Summary of information relevant to reviewing the implementation of the article

[Country name] indicated that it has implemented the provision under review and cited the following legal provisions related to the creation, the missions and the finances of the National Corruption Prevention Commission (NCPC) :

Article 25 of the law Fairness Land

The National Corruption Prevention Commission shall :

- Collect, analyze and make available to the judicial and prosecution authorities, all information related to the detection and the repression of corruption, fraud or related activities committed by any public or private person
- Promote good governance, included in the international commercial exchanges
- Receive alerts from natural and legal persons related to corruption or related activities
- Formulate, upon request from administrative authorities, advice on preventive measures.

Article 27 of the law Fairness Land

The main part of the National Corruption Prevention Commission’s finances is charged on the State budget. The commission has also the opportunity to ask for voluntary contributions from regional and international partners.
(b) Observations on the implementation of the article