

4 December 2012

English only

Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice

Reconvened twenty-first session

Vienna, 6-7 December 2012

Agenda item 9

Provisional agenda for the twenty-second session of the Commission

Proposal of possible sub-themes for the thematic discussion at the twenty-second session

Consensus proposal agreed upon by the informal meeting of interested delegations, facilitated by Vasyl Pokotylo, Second Vice-Chairman of the CCPCJ and endorsed by the Extended Bureau on 4 December 2012:

Thematic discussion on the challenge posed by emerging forms of crime that have a significant impact on the environment and ways to deal with it effectively

23 April 2013, morning session: “Challenges posed by emerging forms of crime that have a significant impact on the environment”

Agreed sub-themes:

(a) “Emerging trends and challenges, including those linked to data collection and its analysis, criminalization and criminal justice”

(b) “Challenges linked to related offences”

23 April 2013, afternoon session: “Possible responses, programmes and initiatives to deal effectively with forms of crime that have a significant impact on the environment”

Agreed sub-themes:

(a) “Possible ways to increase effectiveness of preventive and responsive measures of criminal justice systems, including using existing international treaties to combat crime, as well as on the basis of strengthening partnerships between public and private sectors and civil society”

(b) “International collaboration and partnerships, including the role of UNODC in counter-acting unlawful conduct that may negatively impact the environment”
