PREVENTION OF TRAFFICKING IN PERSONS THROUGH PUBLIC-PRIVATE PARTNERSHIPS (PPPS): PROMISING PRACTICES

CCPCJ Thematic Discussion on the Implementation of the Kyoto Declaration

10-11 November 2021

Billy Batware, UNODC
Para 10
[...], engaging with the private sector, civil society, academia and the scientific community, [...].

OP 81
Strengthen efforts to prevent, counter and combat trafficking in persons, [...], and protecting victims of trafficking in persons.

Para 95
Promote, [...], public-private partnerships with the digital industry, the financial sector [...].
Recent work of UNODC on PPPs to prevent and counter trafficking in persons

Expert Consultations
- SE Europe (40)
- The Americas (70)
- Asia-Pacific (62)
- Africa (80)

Main Outcome: The Compendium
- Promising Practices (39)
- Lessons Learnt (27)
- Key Conclusions & Recommendations (7)
- Tips (33)

PPP project since 2020 funded by Germany
DPA & DTA (CSU & HTMSS)
Maximizing PPPs to prevent and counter TIP in supply chains

- Taking a comprehensive, interdisciplinary and integrated approach
- Communicating PPPs throughout the Supply Chain
- Local Partners
- Procurement, subcontracting and recruitment.
- Data Collection
Maximizing PPPs to prevent and counter TIP in the financial sector

- Support from the top leadership.
- The power of the law in PPPs.
- Knowledge development through typologies and training within financial PPPs.
- The use of technology within financial PPPs.
- Monitoring, evaluation and feedback.
- Privacy and human rights risks.
Maximizing PPPs to prevent and counter TIP in the technology sector

- The development and use of technological tools to address human trafficking
- Innovative technology partnerships
- Taking a victim-oriented approach in tech development.
- Data and data ethics and privacy.
UNODC’s Role in Facilitating PPPs to prevent and Counter TIP
UNODC Civil Society Unit (CSU) &
Human Trafficking and Migrant Smuggling Section (HTMSS)

CSU
unodc-se4u@un.org and unodc-ngounit@un.org

HTMSS
unodchtmss@un.org
Thank you!