WWW.INTERPOL.INT

The central panel features the INTERPOL logo at the top, followed by the title "Policing with a gender perspective" in a large white font. Below the title is the name "Irina D'Almeida" and the date "12 November 2021". At the bottom, the website "WWW.INTERPOL.INT" is displayed. The background of this panel is a dark, blurred image of a person in uniform.

Challenge: Gender mainstreaming is not systematically included in capacity building activities.

Recommendations:

- Standardized training curriculum on gender equality and human rights in a law enforcement context at the national level.
- Rules and regulations as well as monitoring systems should be further strengthened when it comes to the delivery of capacity building by all service providers.
