

Michael O'Connell AM APM consulting victimologist, is a life member and current Secretary-General of the World Society of Victimology (WSV). He is also a Vice President for the NGO Alliance on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice. As well, Michael is a board member of Victim Support Asia (VSA) and a member of the International Network Supporting Victims of Terrorism and Mass Violence (INVICTM). Before he semi-retired, he served as South Australia's first Commissioner for Victims' Rights; and prior to this he was the first Victims of Crime Co-ordinator in that state. During his earlier police career, Michael was the inaugural Victim Impact Statement Co-ordinator. He volunteers as an expert on UN projects in relation to victims of crime and victims of terrorism. Furthermore, he writes and lectures in the fields of Victimology and Criminal Justice.