

RESUME

GENERAL INFORMATION

---

Name: Yao DENG

E-mail: yao.deng@un.org

Contact No.: +4369914594785

EDUCATION

---

2012 – 2013                      University of Melbourne, Australia

Master of Laws (LLM)

2003 – 2007                      China Foreign Affairs University, China

Bachelor of Laws

CAREER HISTORY

---

Feb.2017– now                      Corruption and Economic Crime Branch, Division for Treaty Affairs, United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime
Position Title: Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice Officer

Responsibilities:

- Facilitate implementation review mechanism established under the United Nations Convention against Corruption (UNCAC), including drafting country review reports and executive summaries, and coordinating between reviewing States and States under review;
- Provide substantive service to UNCAC meetings such as the Conference of States Parties, Implementation Review Group, Working Group on Asset Recovery etc.
- Lead and engage in various technical assistance projects related to corruption issues, including on asset management.
- Conduct research and draft reports on corruption related issues, including on the management and disposal of frozen, seized and confiscated assets.

Feb.2011– Feb.2017                      Department of Treaty and Law, Ministry of Foreign Affairs of P.R. China

Position Title: Second Secretary, Third Secretary, Attaché

Responsibilities:

- Conduct research on the development of international law, and coordinate with various divisions on cross-cutting issues of international law.

- Responsible for cyber crime issues, including conducting research and drafting internal reports, attending relevant conferences and events as a government representative;
- Responsible for international human rights law issues, including providing legal advice to the Ministry, attending UN sessions and informal consultations, coordinating on the periodic reviews of China's implementation on relevant International Human Rights Treaties (CRC, CAT, CERD, CEDAW);
- Attend international or regional conferences on international law and diplomacy, draft statements, remarks and position paper, and negotiate outcome documents;
- As the project manager for the China-AALCO Exchange and Research Programme on International Law, organize symposiums and trainings for more than 100 legal officers from Asian and African countries.

Dec. 2008– Jan.2011 Consular Section, Chinese Consulate General in Toronto

Position Title: Vice Consul

Responsibilities:

- Provide legal advice to the Consulate, including on extradition and mutual legal assistance;
- Help with key consular relationship management;
- Deal with consular protection cases;
- Process legal documents and certificates.

Sep. 2007– Nov.2008 Department of Consular Affairs, Ministry of Foreign Affairs of P.R. China

Position: Working Staff

Responsibilities:

- Assist senior colleagues in making representations with foreign counterparts in the consular protection cases;
- Draft talking points, summary and provide legal advice for consular cases;

PUBLICATIONS

---

- Diplomacy of Major Powers should Rely on International Law, Law and Diplomacy (internal government periodical), 17 Jan. 2017
- Development and Trend of Current International Law and its Impact on China, Law Digest (internal government periodical), 11 Nov. 2016
- Privacy in the Digital Age, Law Digest (internal government periodical), 26 Feb 2016

- Analysis on State Immunity Cases, Law Digest (internal government periodical), 05 Mar. 2012
- The Future Development of Asian African Legal Consultative Organization, Law Digest (Internal government periodical), 30 Jun 2011

LANGUAGE ABILITY

---

English: fluent    Chinese: mother tongue    French: basic