

Kentaro TAKAI

Kentaro TAKAI is Attorney, Minister's Secretariat of the Ministry of Justice of Japan.

He started his professional career as a public prosecutor of the Tokyo District Public Prosecutor's Office in 2009.

His subsequent professional experiences include inter alia participating in the UN Human Rights Council as the Legal Attaché at the Permanent Mission of Japan in Geneva and assisting the Japanese Diet in drafting criminal legislations as an Attorney of the Criminal Affairs Bureau.

