

Sami Gabsi is the actual head of the Support and Protection Unit for victims and witnesses at the Special criminal Court (CPS in French) in the Central African Republic, Bangui.

He started his professional career with the Belgian Gendarmerie. Became a member of the Belgian federal police special Units.

Prior to joining the Victims and Witness Unit for the Special Tribunal for Lebanon at the Beirut Office in 2011, Sami spent 10 years with the Belgian national WP Unit. Sami choses as his personal motto: Every individual is different; every case is unique, let's work for truth and justice