

Tatiana Salem

Short bio

Tatiana Salem is General Coordinator of the Conference of Ministers of Justice of Ibero-American Countries and of the Ibero-American Network for International Legal Cooperation, known as IberRed. She is Technical Secretary of the Ibero-American Program of Access to Justice.

She has served as National Director of Institutional Relations and National Director of Relations with the Legislative Branch in the Ministry of Justice of Argentina. In addition, she has been General Director of the Justice Commission of the Legislature of the City of Buenos Aires, has served in the Presidency of the Justice Commission of the National Chamber of Deputies and was Coordinator of the Justice and Transparency Program of CIPPEC in Argentina.