

Maria Adomeit, Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice Officer (Anti-Corruption), United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime (UNODC)

Maria Adomeit has 15 years of experience in crime prevention and criminal justice issues, with particular focus on anti-corruption and economic crimes.

Currently, she is working with the Corruption and Economic Crime Branch of UNODC. She coordinates the work on corruption risk management within public institutions as well as work on corruption related to crimes that affect the environment and corruption in the health sector.

Prior to her current assignment, Ms. Adomeit she served as the Regional Anti-Corruption Adviser for the Pacific. She has held various assignments within the Corruption and Economic Crime Branch as well as the Regional Section for Africa and the Middle East.

Before joining UNDOC, Ms. Adomeit worked for the Finnish Ministry for Foreign Affairs in Vienna and in Nairobi. She has a Master's degree in Political Science.