

Maria Socorro Manguiat

Senior Legal Officer

Head, National Environmental Law Unit

Law Division, United Nations Environment Programme

Nairobi, Kenya

Maria Socorro has been practicing environmental law for 25 years. She is currently based in Nairobi, Kenya, where she heads the National Environmental Law Unit of UNEP's Law Division. She leads the Law Division's efforts to strengthen national legal frameworks and institutional capacities to achieve internationally agreed environmental goals through technical legal assistance, capacity-building, and the development of knowledge products. Her areas of focus include climate change, air pollution, the Montreal Protocol on Substances that Deplete the Ozone Layer, and illegal trade in wildlife and forest products.

Maria has a degree in Economics (Honors Programme) and a Juris Doctor degree from the Ateneo de Manila University. She obtained her Master of Laws degree from Harvard Law School. She is a member of the Philippine and New York Bar.