

Anna Kobyłecka, Technical Officer, Environment Programme Manager, in the Compliance and Facilitation Directorate of the World Customs Organization.

- Ms Anna Kobyłecka has assumed charge of the WCO Environment Programme in October 2021.
- She has over 22 years' experience in Customs administration in various positions and finally as Counsellor in Customs Department of the Ministry of Finance of Poland.
- Since 2007 she has been dealing with policy and Customs enforcement of the legislation in the field of prohibitions and restrictions related to the protection of health and life of humans and the protection of the environment such as the EU legislation on compliance and product safety, chemicals and combatting illegal logging.
- Ms Anna Kobyłecka has represented Poland in various committees and expert groups of the European Commission such as Committee on Market Surveillance; Expert Group/Multistakeholder Platform of Deforestation/EUTR/FLEGT; Prohibitions and Restrictions Customs Control Strategy (PARCS) Expert Group of DG TAXUD and its working groups on REACH, market surveillance and fluorinated greenhouse gases as well as various international meetings related to restrictions and prohibitions with relevance for Customs.