

Mahdy Hassan is currently working with the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime (UNODC) in Bangladesh as National Programme Officer to lead the management and implementation of the Project Global Action against Trafficking in Persons and the Smuggling of Migrants - Bangladesh \(GLO.ACT - Bangladesh\), a joint initiative by the European Union and UNODC implemented in partnership with the International Organization for Migration (IOM). Mahdy has over eight years of work experience on the prevention and response to human trafficking and the protection and promotion of the rights of the refugees, migrant workers and persons with disabilities. Prior to this, Mahdy worked with the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR) in Cox's Bazar, one of the largest refugee camp in the world. He also worked with BRAC, Relief International, ARTICLE 19 and the National Human Rights Commission, Bangladesh in different leadership positions. Mahdy holds a Bachelor and a Master of Laws degrees from University of Dhaka.