

Shirleen Chin (Alliance)

Bio: Shirleen is an international legal expert and independent consultant (Green Transparency) focusing on environmental crime, human rights and governance. She's worked 10 years in the environmental non-profit sector and devotes her time in helping other NGOs with strategic advocacy, including Stop Ecocide International, who she represents as their Diplomatic Liaison and Strategic Projects collaborator. Through her engagement with the topic of environmental crime, she has written a number of articles for various allies (e.g. Harvard School of Law, Global Initiative Against Transnational Organised Crime) and other publications (e.g. Cambio16, OpinioJuris). Presentation notes: identifying multilateral/intergovernmental platforms with accompanying legal instruments, review of compliance and enforcement with the legal instruments, identifying room for improvements/interventions to address compliance and enforcement issues, strategic advocacy to strengthen stakeholder engagement to enhance broader cooperation on the effectiveness of legal avenues.
