

Ana Motamayor is Policy Advisor at the Global Initiative to End Wildlife Crime, where her efforts focus on engagement with the United Nations in Vienna, in particular the CCPCJ and UNTOC. She previously worked at the Wildlife Justice Commission as External Relations Officer, where she supported their work at the Council of Europe, the CCPCJ, the UNTOC and UNCAC. She has an L.L.M. in Public International Law from Utrecht University with a specialization in environmental law.