

Safa Mohammed Sekainy Ahmed (Ms.)

Deputy Head of Mission

Embassy/Permanent Mission of the Republic of Sudan to the United Nations, Vienna she is an experienced diplomat and legal expert with a robust career spanning over two decades in international law, intellectual property, and diplomacy. Currently serving as the Deputy Head of Mission at the Sudanese Permanent Mission to the UN in Vienna, she has held various positions in Sudan's Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Ministry of Justice.

Finalizing a Master of International Law (LLM) from the University of Vienna and hold Masters in Intellectual Property (MIP) from Africa University, Zimbabwe, she specializes in areas such as intellectual property rights as a tool for development.

Throughout her career, she has been instrumental in providing legal advice on diverse matters, including contracts, foreign investment, and intellectual property. She has also represented Sudan in international forums, including WIPO, WTO and ARIPO meetings, and served as a representative of the Sudan at the meetings of the Ad Hoc Committee on drafting a comprehensive international convention on countering the use of ICT for criminal purposes.

With a cross-cultural professional background and extensive experience in both legal practice and international diplomacy, she brings valuable insights into the challenges posed by emerging and evolving crimes, particularly those intersecting with technological advancements.

She is committed to advancing international cooperation and harmonizing legal norms to address global challenges effectively.