

Ivan Nault – Speaker's Bio

Ivan Nault is the Department of Justice Canada's Liaison Counsellor to Europe, based out of Canada's Mission to the European Union in Brussels. In this role, Ivan supports transnational criminal cooperation efforts between Canada and European jurisdictions and institutions, in particular in relation to extradition and mutual legal assistance on behalf of Canada's central authority, the International Assistance Group. Ivan is also the Canada Contact for the European Judicial Network and Eurojust. Recently, he was a member of Canada's delegation to the Financial Action Task Force during which time he also led the central authority's transnational asset recovery matters. Ivan was previously a criminal prosecutor at both provincial and federal levels in Canada and he started his law career as a legal aid criminal defence lawyer. Ivan's training includes bachelor degrees in common law and civil law (LL.B, B.C.L., McGill University) and international criminal law (LLM, UNICRI).
