

1994/281. Organization of work of the fourth session of the Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice

At its 43rd plenary meeting, on 25 July 1994, the Economic and Social Council decided that the Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice at its fourth session, in addition to plenary meetings, should be provided with full interpretation services for eight meetings for informal consultations on draft proposals and for four meetings of an open-ended working group; the working group would discuss, inter alia, the role of the United Nations in promoting the use and application of standards and norms in crime prevention and criminal justice and, as separate questions, violence against women and violence against children in their crime prevention and criminal justice aspects; the decision was taken on the understanding that no more than two meetings would be held concurrently, in order to ensure maximum participation of delegations.
