GENERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

1. A list of offices and telephones in the M-Building during the sixty-third session of the Commission on Narcotic Drugs is annexed to this Journal.

Texts of written statements

2. Delegates who will deliver statements are requested to supply them in advance to the Meetings Management Unit, preferably by email (to: unov.conference@un.org), or, alternatively, to provide printed copies of their statement to the conference service desk in the Plenary Hall.

Documentation

3. As part of the efforts of the secretariat to reduce expenditure and limit the environmental impact through the digitization of conference materials and documents, pre-session documents of the sixty-third session will only be issued electronically, in all six official languages, on the website of the sixty-third session. Participants who wish to use printed versions of the pre-session documents should bring their own copies.
4. During the session, each delegation will receive a single set of in-session documents, in the language of its choice. At the documents distribution counter, each delegation will be assigned a distribution box for in-session documents.
5. A journal containing the daily programme and other information related to the conduct of the session will be posted on the website of the sixty-third session of the Commission every morning. A limited number of printed copies will also be made available at the document distribution counter.

Languages of the sixty-third session of the Commission

6. The official languages of the meeting are the six official languages of the United Nations: Arabic, Chinese, English, French, Russian and Spanish. Official documents of the meeting will be made available in all six official languages.
