

“Frontliners for Curbing Substance Use Among Children and Youths During Covid-19”

64th Session of the Commission on Narcotic Drugs

Thursday, 15 April 2021, 10:00 – 10:50 CET

This meeting will be held on Zoom, and available in English and Russian. Please join the meeting through this link: https://zoom.us/webinar/register/WN\_QTNIGEWVRqm4N0byeKFpA

Organized by the Slum Child Foundation with the support of the National Anti-Drug Union and the UNODC Civil Society Unit, this side-event will present the work of civil society organisations in curbing substance use among children and youth, especially in the context of the Covid-19 pandemic.

Geographically diverse perspectives, from non-profit organisations based in Africa, Europe and the Americas, will be represented. The event will include a Question-and-Answer session to engage the audience.

10:00 – 10:50 CET	Opening remarks and moderation: Mirella Dummar Frahi, UNODC Speakers: George Ochieng Odalo, Slum Child Foundation Nikita Lushnikov (Chairman) &amp; Co-speaker Valeria Polyakova (Head of the Youth Direction), National Anti-Drug Union Amy Ronshausen (President), World Federation Against Drugs (tbc) Question &amp; Answer session
------------------------------	---