A new chapter in law enforcement influencing drug policy.

We need effective drug policies with positive outcomes, and a greater emphasis on justice, dignity and human rights. How can we achieve this?

LEAP as an organisation is growing across Europe. This event is a call to nation States to treat this as the crisis it is. As law enforcement, we need more regulatory innovations urgently. We call on police everywhere to be honest. We have the key information to drive policy change.
