

NEW CHALLENGES FOR CYBERSECURITY, ILLICIT DRUG TRAFFIKING AND CONSUMPTION IN THE ERA OF COVID 19

14 APRIL 2021 09:00 – 09:50 CET

Virtual Event in Russian with simultaneous interpretation into English

The event will feature a presentation of the recently published book by a group of Russian experts on crime prevention, cybercrime and criminology - «COVID -19: CRIME, CYBERSECURITY, SOCIETY, POLICE» dedicated to evolution of criminal practices, including drug trafficking, in cyberspace in the COVID-19 and post-pandemic period and the way these issues are addressed by governments and civil society. We will also discuss a 2021 NGO study on cyber hygiene and preventing offensive Internet content.

REGISTER HERE

ANY QUERIES? EMAIL:
y.zhdanov@ipa-russia.org

Yury Zhdanov Stanislav Kuznetsov Vladimir Ovchinsky

COVID-19:

CRIME, CYBERSECURITY, SOCIETY, POLICE

Foreword by Alexey Kudrin

MODERATOR

- Natalia Kulikova, Vice-president of the International Police Association Russian Section

SPEAKERS

- Yury Zhdanov, President of the International Police Association Russian Section, author of the book
- Konstantin Kunts, Director of Autonomous non-profit organisation «Smart Solutions Integration Agency»