

Mehmet Fatih Uçar has been working as the Director of the Division of Proceeds of Crime of the Counter-Narcotics Department of Turkish National Police in Ankara since 2017.

Mr. Uçar's professional experience includes 20 years in the field of combatting smuggling, narcotics and organized crime.

He has attended many meetings, conferences and training activities under the UN.

Mr. Uçar graduated from the Police College in 1997 and the Police Academy in 2001. He also graduated from International Relations Faculty of Gazi University in Ankara.

He is fluent in English and has a knowledge of Spanish language.