

BIOGRAPHY OF DR ABEL BASUTU

Abel Basutu is a Programme specialist with extensive experience in policy formulation and advocacy, management and implementation of technical cooperation projects in diversified development fields. He holds a PhD in Business Administration and previously worked for the World Food Programme (WFP), World Health Organization (WHO), and International Labour Organization (ILO). He currently works as a Senior Drug Control Programme Officer for the African Union Commission with whom he has been for the past 10 years.

His intervention focuses on the misuse of information and communications technologies to prop up drug trafficking and related crime in Africa.