

BIOGRAPHY

Dr. Ibrahim Abdul is a Nigerian national and a management staff in Nigeria's National Drug Law Enforcement Agency. He graduated from Ahmadu Bello University Zaria, Nigeria with LL.B , LL.M and PhD degrees in Law. He also holds a Master degree in International Affairs and Diplomacy in the same University. He is also a Barrister at Laws. He was the first law enforcement officer to commence the enforcement of the Money Laundering Act in Nigeria. He has served in several capacities in the National Drug Law Enforcement Agency of Nigeria. Some of the offices he held included: the first Head of Money Laundering Unit of Nigeria's NDLEA; Zonal Commander Kaduna Zone; Zonal Commander Kebbi Zone; the Assistant Director Training and Manpower Development; the Assistant Director Investigation; Assistant Director Financial Investigation; Assistant Director Audit etc. In these capacities Ibrahim represented Nigeria at many bilateral and multilateral meetings and negotiations on Drugs and Money Laundering Control. He has provided trainings to officers in the English-speaking West African countries including the Inter-Government Action Group against Money Laundering in West Africa (GIABA). He also provided trainings for the UNODC, National Judicial Institute, Chartered Institute of Bankers, Institute of Chartered Accountants of Nigeria, value Card International and several financial institutions. Ibrahim has published extensively on Drug control, Money Laundering and Terrorism Financing. He also moderated several world conferences on drug control. For example, he moderated the Interpol international conference tagged unity for security forum on transnational crimes held in Abu Dhabi in 2016. He is also a consultant with ECOWAS on international Drug law. He has to his credit two books and twelve publications in international journals.

He is currently an Assistant Commander General of Narcotics and Director Assets and Financial Investigation NDLEA Nigeria.