

G. Isaac Morales Tenorio

Isaac Morales is currently Coordinator for Multidimensional Security Issues, Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Mexico. Among other responsibilities he is in charge of multilateral negotiations on drug policy, arms control, cybersecurity, cybercrime, cyberspace governance and emerging technologies, organized crime, hybrid threats, and other emerging security challenges.

He has represented Mexico in several global and regional meetings, attending both inter-governmental and multi-stakeholder processes. Member of the High Level Group on Synthetic Drugs; the UN Group of Governmental Experts to advance Responsible State Behaviour in Cyberspace (2019-2021); current Chair of the OAS Working Group on CBMs in Cyberspace; Member of the Confidentiality Commission of the OPCW (2021-present); and Chairperson of the Fifth Conference of States Parties to the Inter-American Convention against illicit manufacturing and trafficking of arms (CIFTA).

Isaac Morales holds a Bachelor's Degree in International Relations (National University of Mexico); Master's Degree in Diplomatic Studies (Matías Romero Institute); and PhD Studies in Political Science (UNAM). He also has graduated specialized studies from Florida International University, Jose Ortega y Gasset Institute in Spain, and the Institut de Hautes Études Internationales, Geneve, Switzerland.

He has many publications and wide teaching experience on international security, emerging technologies, foreign policy, peacekeeping operations, transnational organized crime and development issues.

Twitter: @iMoralesTenorio

Email: imorales@sre.gob.mx