

Raúl Martín del Campo Sánchez

- Master's Degree in Addiction Psychology, Faculty of Psychology, National Autonomous University of Mexico, 2002.
- Professor of policies on drug use prevention, treatment and harm reduction.
- Member of the Seminar of Studies on Globality, Opioid Chapter of the Faculty of Medicine of the National Autonomous University of Mexico (2018 to date);
- Director of Planning of the National Institute of Psychiatry of Mexico (2018 to date).
- Clinical Practice in Psychotherapy (1998-2006 & 2016 to date)

Policy experience on reducing substance use:

- Elected Member of International Narcotics Control Board (2016-2022)
- General Director of the National Center for the Prevention and Control of Addictions (CENADIC) National Ministry of Health (2013-2016).
- Director of the Mexican Observatory of Tobacco, Alcohol and Drugs, of the National Commission against Addictions (2012 and 2013);
- Founder and Director, Mexiquense Institute against Addictions (IMCA), Government of the State of Mexico (2007 to 2011);