

Jaime Oliveira

Jaime Oliveira is a Brazilian lawyer and public health expert. His work focuses on creating and implementing policies that balance the need for access to essential medications with efforts to curb misuse and addiction. He has been instrumental in shaping regulations in Brazil to address the growing challenges related to prescription drug abuse. Jaime Oliveira was member of the Board of Directors of the Brazilian Sanitary Surveillance Agency (ANVISA) and legal councillor for the Brazilian Presidency. He collaborates internationally on initiatives aimed at promoting safer pharmaceutical practices and advancing global strategies to combat the opioid crisis.