

Caroline LIM

Senior Assistant Commissioner Prisons
Director, Rehabilitation and Reintegration Division,
Singapore Prison Service

Senior Assistant Commissioner (SAC) Caroline Lim joined the Singapore Prison Service (SPS) in 2001. Throughout her 23-year career, she has served in various capacities in the women's prison, offender rehabilitation policy and planning, strategic human resources, manpower planning, and training. She also served in the Ministry of Home Affairs (MHA) in the areas of joint operations and ops-tech from 2013 to 2016.

Prior to her current posting, SAC Caroline Lim was Commander of Cluster A, one of three prison clusters in Singapore, and was responsible for the safe custody and rehabilitation of over 5,000 offenders across five prisons, including the only women's prison in Singapore. SAC Caroline Lim is currently Director, Rehabilitation and Reintegration Division, and oversees SPS's policies, programmes, and partnerships that facilitate the offenders' throughcare journey from prison to community.
