

Ms. WU Tingfang's Resume

Ms. Wu Tingfang is the director of the Precursor and NPS Control Division, Office of National Narcotics Control Commission, China. She worked in Ministry of Public Security since August, 2004, and became official of Narcotics Control Bureau since August, 2005.

Her responsibility is to organize research and survey on substances for scheduling, supervise the local narcotics control departments to issue the purchase and transportation license, cooperate with relevant department (emergency management, medical products administration, commerce, customs, etc.) to enhance the administration on precursor chemicals, coordinate the investigation on national or transnational precursor-related crimes and New Psychoactive Substances cases, launch special campaigns on key precursors or NPS, undertake draft and signing of bilateral MOU on precursor control and other relevant matters. She has rich experience in investigation/administration and international cooperation on precursor chemicals and New Psychoactive Substances.

She used to work in police station and local narcotics control section from 2009 to 2010, and worked in Lancang-Mekong Integrated Law Enforcement and Security Cooperation Center from 2018 to 2020. Thus she also have some experiences on grass-root level work and cooperation in Lancang-Mekong region.

She studied in Beijing International Studies University from September 2000 to July 2004, majored in Management and got bachelor's degree in management. During 2010 and 2012, she furthered studies in University of International Business and Economics, and got Juris Master.