CND Res.1(S-V). International Convention on customs enforcement*/

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs,

Bearing in mind the important role played by customs administrations in combating the illicit traffic in narcotic drugs and psychotropic substances,

Recognizing that the International Convention on mutual administrative assistance for the prevention, investigation and repression of customs offences, adopted by the Customs Co-operation Council at Nairobi on 9 June 1977, and particularly its annex X, provides a valuable measure for improving mutual co-operation between customs administrations in their fight against illicit drug traffic,

Recommends that all States members of the Customs Co-operation Council, having due regard to their constitutional, legal and administrative systems, should consider acceding particularly to annex X of the International Convention on mutual administrative assistance for the prevention, investigation and repression of customs offences, of 9 June 1977, at the earliest possible date.

853rd meeting,
22 February 1978.
