Resolution 50/11

International cooperation in preventing the illegal distribution of internationally controlled licit substances via the Internet

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs,

Recognizing that the illegal distribution of internationally controlled licit substances via the Internet is an escalating problem and that the unsupervised use of such substances purchased through the Internet by the general public, in particular underage persons, constitutes a serious risk to global health,

Recalling that, in its resolution 43/8, it encouraged Member States to consider measures of cooperation with a view to preventing the diversion of controlled pharmaceuticals and precursor chemicals through the Internet,

Noting that the International Narcotics Control Board, in its report for 2006, highlighted, inter alia, the illegal distribution of internationally controlled licit substances via the Internet,

Recognizing that the procurement of internationally controlled licit substances via the Internet is illegal whenever it contravenes an international treaty or national law,

Recalling the action taken at the national and international levels to control the diversion of internationally controlled licit substances through the implementation of the provisions of the Single Convention on Narcotic Drugs of 1961, that Convention as amended by the 1972 Protocol, the Convention on Psychotropic Substances of 1971 and the United Nations Convention against Illicit Traffic in Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances of 1988,

Taking note of the Tunis Agenda for the Information Society of the second phase of the World Summit on the Information Society, held in Tunis on 16-18 November 2005,

Observing that the Inter-American Drug Abuse Control Commission of the Organization of American States, at its fortieth regular session, held in Santa Cruz de la Sierra, Bolivia, in November 2006, adopted a guide entitled “Drugs in cyberspace: understanding and investigating diversion and distribution of controlled substances via the Internet”,

Recognizing that the above-mentioned guide outlines the scope of the issue, its elements and tools for Member States to respond to the issue, including the need for appropriate legislation,

51 United Nations publication, Sales No. E.07.XI.11.
53 Ibid., vol. 976, No. 14152.
54 Ibid., vol. 1019, No. 14956.
55 Ibid., vol. 1582, No. 27627.
56 A/60/687.
1. Acknowledges the efforts made by international and regional organizations, as well as Member States, in adopting measures to combat the illegal distribution of internationally controlled licit drugs via the Internet;

2. Invites Member States to take into consideration the efforts of international and regional organizations, such as the guide entitled “Drugs in cyberspace: understanding and investigating diversion and distribution of controlled substances via the Internet”, when examining whether adequate measures exist to regulate, investigate and prosecute the illegal distribution of internationally controlled licit substances via the Internet;

3. Encourages Member States, to the extent possible, to notify the International Narcotics Control Board, in a regular and standardized manner, of seizures of internationally controlled licit substances ordered via the Internet and delivered through the mail, in order to fully assess trends relevant to this issue;

4. Encourages the International Narcotics Control Board to continue its work with a view to raising awareness of and preventing the misuse of the Internet for the illegal supply, sale and distribution of internationally controlled licit substances;

5. Invites Member States with experience in investigating drug-related Internet-based crime to provide the necessary equipment, training and assistance to other Member States, upon request, in cooperation with the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime, where appropriate and subject to extrabudgetary resources;

6. Decides to continue to discuss this important issue at its fifty-first session;

7. Requests the Executive Director of the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime to transmit the text of the present resolution to all Member States.

Resolution 50/12

Measures to meet the goal of establishing by 2009 the progress achieved in implementing the declarations and measures adopted by the General Assembly at its twentieth special session

The Commission on Narcotic Drugs,

Recalling that, in the Political Declaration adopted by the General Assembly at its twentieth special session, the Assembly called upon all States to take into account the outcome of that session when formulating national strategies and programmes and to report biennially to the Commission on Narcotic Drugs on their efforts to meet the goals and targets for the years 2003 and 2008 set out in the Political Declaration, and requested the Commission to analyse those reports in order to enhance cooperative efforts to address the world drug problem,

Recognizing that the international drug control treaties and the outcome of the twentieth special session of the General Assembly, especially the Political Declaration, the Declaration on the Guiding Principles of Drug Demand

__________________

57 General Assembly resolution S-20/2, annex.