

13th UNITED NATIONS CONGRESS ON CRIME PREVENTION AND CRIMINAL JUSTICE

Doha, 12-19 April 2015

High-level segment

CONGRESS ADOPTS DOHA DECLARATION

Heads of State and Government, Ministers and Representatives of Member States, reaffirmed their shared commitment to uphold the rule of law and to prevent and counter crime in all its forms and manifestations. To this end the Doha Declaration on "Integrating crime prevention and criminal justice into the wider United Nations agenda to address social and economic challenges and to promote the rule of law at the national and international levels, and public participation" was adopted.

The Congress acknowledged the 60-year legacy and continuing significant role of the United Nations congresses on crime prevention and criminal justice, reaffirming the need to integrate those issues into the wider agenda of the United Nations.

Excerpts from the declaration:

"We acknowledge that sustainable development and the rule of law are strongly interrelated and mutually reinforcing"

"We reaffirm our commitment and strong political will in support of effective, fair, humane and accountable criminal justice systems"

"We emphasize that education for all children and youth, including the eradication of illiteracy, is fundamental to the prevention of crime and corruption"

"We endeavour to strengthen international cooperation as a cornerstone of our efforts to enhance crime prevention and effective, fair, humane and accountable criminal justice systems, and ultimately to prevent and counter all crimes"

"We endeavour to ensure that the benefits of economic, social and technological advancements become a positive force to enhance our efforts in preventing and countering new and emerging forms of crime"
