United Nations Convention against Corruption

The United Nations Convention against Corruption is the only legally binding universal anti-corruption instrument. The Convention's far-reaching approach and the mandatory character of many of its provisions make it a unique tool for developing a comprehensive response to a global problem. The vast majority of United Nations Member States are parties to the Convention.

Adopted by the UN General Assembly: 31 October 2003, by resolution 58/4

Entry into force: 14 December 2005, in accordance with article 68(1)

Signatories: 140

Parties: 183 (as of 3 October 2017)
