Victims
Number of persons identified as victims of trafficking in persons and/or statutory victims⁴, 2017 – 2020

In 2017, less than five Uzbek women were granted status of victim as well as status of statutory victim. Therefore, in sum 11 persons were granted 12 statuses of victim and statutory victim. In 2018, less than five Uzbek women were granted status of victim as well as status of statutory victim. Therefore, in sum 7 persons were granted 9 statuses of victim and statutory victim.

Victims/Statutory victims of trafficking were reported to be trafficked between 2017 and 2020 for sexual exploitation, forced begging, forced labour and other purposes. The majority of victims/statutory victims identified in the reporting period were Georgian citizens. Between 2017 and 2020, National Authorities identified 53 Georgian citizens as victims/statutory victims of domestic trafficking.

National Authorities of Georgia reported that between 2017 and 2020, the majority of persons identified as victims of trafficking in persons were girls. Furthermore, identified victims of trafficking were predominantly trafficked for sexual exploitation. Victims were either Georgian or citizens of another country in the subregion.

Kazakhstan acceded to the UN Protocol to Prevent, Suppress and Punish Trafficking in Persons, Especially Women and Children in 2008. Trafficking in persons is criminalised under Article 128 of the Criminal Code.⁵
